Reapportionment Jumps To Life At Albany, Adds To Lawmakers' Worries

Governor Lehman is Prepared to Take Leadership in Drive to Gain Immediate Consideration of Redistricting.

FEARON'S CALL

Republican Senate Leader Calls Upon New Deal to Distribute Relief Funds "Equitably."

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Reapportionment, dormant through the first four months of the 1936 session, appeared likely today to be thrust into the legislative picture as the lawmakers struggle toward adjournment next week.

Usually informed sources said Governor Lehman is prepared to take the leadership in a drive to gain immediate consideration of legislative and congressional redistricting by transmitting a message to the Legislature.

In his annual message on January 1, the Governor pronounced the failure of the Legislature to act on reapportionment "pathetic and humiliating."

After recalling that there had not been a congressional reapportionment since 1911 and that the latest redistricting of Senate and Assembly districts was in 1917, Mr. Lehman suggested that a new failure on the part of the legislators to act might result in a popular demand that the work be undertaken by the Court of Appeals.

Regardless of the message, observers believe there is little likelihood of legislative approval of any reapportionment measure. Tammany members, as was the case last year, are expected to stand in solid opposition to any proposed bill because it would reduce New York county's representation.

Non-Partisan Bill

While awaiting the Governor's message, Senator Frank B. Hendel, Queens County Democrat, introduced what he termed a "non-partisan" bill for congressional redistricting. This was drafted, he said, by Professor Wallace Sayre of New York University.

"The bill," Hendel asserted, "is carefully to preserve approximate equality of population in compact and contiguous districts without deliberate advantage to either party."

New York city would be given 25 members out of the 45, instead of 23 as at present, with power to control the two members at large. The bill would increase the representation of Queens, the Bronx and Brooklyn and decrease that of Manhattan.

"Update," Hendel said, "care has been taken to avoid putting two congressmen into the same district wherever possible, but fair treatment for the parts of the state which have grown fastest since 1911 makes this necessary in two cases."

Rochester would be made a separate district, with the rest of Monroe and Genesee. Livingston, Ontario and Orleans counties to make up another district.

Onondaga county, including the City of Syracuse, would be a separate district, while Buffalo would be divided three ways as at present and combined with the remainder of Erie county with Niagara.

Will Move For Vote

At the same time, Hendel said he would move next week to bring a vote on his bill reapportioning Assembly districts and increasing Senate representation to 52 instead of 51 as at present. Assemblyman Maurice A. Fitzgerald, Queens Democrat, has a companion measure in the Assembly.

Meantime, the lawmakers moved homeward for the week-end with hopes of coming back Monday night for the last time this year. Legislative leaders have high hopes of quelling by next Thursday or Friday, barring unforeseen developments such as occurred this week to blast plans for the falling of the snail gavel.

The Republican Assembly majority remained determined to kill the governor's proposal for an appropriation of $10,000,000 from general funds to finance unemployment relief from November 15 to February 1, 1937.

But they will go along, leaders said, on the proposal to authorize submission of a $20,000,000 relief bond issue to the electorate in November with $15,000,000 to be earned for immediate use.

Both measures were adopted by the Democratic-controlled Senate yesterday.

Republicans said their opposition to the $10,000,000 appropriation lies in the fact that the governor plans to recommend repayment of the fourth cent of the gasoline tax, killed earlier in the session by the Assembly, to finance the funds.

Feared Relief Call

Republican Senate Leader George R. Fearon called upon the federal administration today to distribute relief funds on an "equitable basis" so that taxpayers of the state of New York will not be required to provide relief in other sections of the country.

The action was taken in the form of a resolution introduced in the Community Chest Seen As Possibility Next Year

Setting a steady course toward the elimination of numerous drives during the winter months to obtain funds for charitable and welfare activities through the establishment of a "Community Chest," the Kiwanis committee charged with investigation of the possibilities of such a plan, reported yesterday that a substantial headway was being made and that such a "chest" was a possibility next year.

Dr. Charles Parsons, chairman of the Kiwanis committee, said that Kiwanis, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts Junior League, Jewish Community Center and Industrial Home, have tentatively agreed to the general plan, and the doctor expressed the hope that this group would be joined by Kingston Hospital, Benedictine Hospital and the Knights of Columbus.

Average budgets, based on the actual needs of each organization over a three year period, have been studied and the cost of promoting such a drive has been figured. However, numerous small points of difference must be ironed out to the satisfaction of all of the participating organizations, it was said.

Kiwanis directors voted yesterday to abandon their annual charity ball, subject to approval of the club membership, providing the "chest" became a reality before the first of August. The reservation was made to protect the club in case the plan fails through for this year, to allow the organization to raise money for its clinic and milk fund activities.

Other organizations are expected to take similar action, with reservations, and with such action the plan is expected to move swiftly to a successful conclusion.

Five Young Men Held Here to Be Questioned In Bogota Bank Holdup

Louis Viola, Alfred Papalia, Frank Kubica, John Dribela and Rudolph Usiak, ranging in age from 18 to 23, all claiming Guttenberg, N. J., as their residence, were picked up at 4 o'clock this morning on Green-lane avenue on charges of disorderly conduct in loitering about the street with no visible means of support.

Later in police court all five pleaded guilty and at the request of Sergeant Simpson of the Kingston police department, imposition of sentence was deferred until Saturday morning as detectives from New Jersey were expected in Kingston today to look the five over and see if they knew anything regarding the Bogota bank holdup.

The five young men were loitering around the West Shore railroad station early this morning when Detective Homer Goodsell of the railroad police entered the station when the five left by the rear door. The police were notified and the five picked up by one of the radio cars.

Detectives Coming Here
Bogota, N. J., May 1 (AP)—Police authorities said today five men were taken into custody in Kingston, N. Y., for questioning in the holdup of the Bogota National Bank.

Prosecutor John J. Breslin sent detectives to Kingston to question the men who, police said here, have long criminal records.

More than $20,000 was taken in the holdup yesterday.

Found Drowned in Pond at Cragmoor

The body of Miss Fanny Cudney, elderly woman who for the past nine years had made her home as housekeeper for Postmaster W. R. Garritt of Cragmoor, was found in a small pond not far from the Garritt residence Sunday morning. Coroner Humiston was notified.

Miss Cudney had spoken of having dizzy spells early in the morning and it is thought she suffered an attack of dizziness and fell into the water when she had gone out early Sunday morning to look for trailing arbutus and probably had stopped at the little pond to see if she could find signs of some goldfish which she had noticed there on another occasion.

Miss Cudney was born in Lewesville, near Elizaville, February 16, 1860, daughter of Henry L. Cudney of Elizaville and his wife, formerly Caroline Moorehead of Creek Locks.

She had lived in Elizaville and vicinity most of her life, for many years with an aunt, the late Mrs. C. T. Haysburst. She is survived by several cousins. Mr. Garritt being one of them.

10 U. S. Veterans Fight To Hold Pershing Hall Against French Ouster

Legionnaires Barricade Selves in $500,000 Debt-Ridden Structure to Prevent Closing of Headquarters by Committee.

PLAN TO AID

Special Committee Meets in Indianapolis to Consider Plan for Wiping Out Debt.

Paris, May 1 (AP)—Four American veterans who once faced German fire maintained a hold today on Pershing Hall, Paris headquarters of the American Legion, and declared it would take more than the building committee and French police to oust them.

With six other prominent members of the Paris Post, the legionnaires "barricaded" themselves in the hall last night, determined to keep possession of the building until they could hold a meeting tonight to seek means of filling their empty treasury.

The building committee, which had ordered the $500,000 structure closed last night because of indebtedness, called police to clear the hall.

The legionnaires remained, however, the police declining to undertake forcible ejection without a court order.

Peter McKay and Joseph Walsh, both of Brooklyn, N. Y., were among the legionnaires holding the club.

The legionnaires assembled to hold one meeting last night, and rejected a request by Col. Francis E. Drake, head of the building committee, that they leave. He said they would make another effort tonight to meet.

The group was "almost ready" to stay in Pershing Hall until its building committee apologized for calling French police to "throw American legionnaires out of their own home," Smith said.

All Quiet

The four-man garrison reported "all quiet" this morning after its night encampment to keep the legion quarters open.

In good humor, although they had to sleep in chairs, the four veterans said they still intended to stay until tonight so that they could admit other members of Paris Post No. 1 for their monthly meeting.

Colonel Drake, of Ann Arbor, Mich., president of the building corporation, went to his office on another floor of Pershing Hall and puzzled over the problem of how to carry out the closure order.

With a debt of about $350,000, the board of directors ordered April 9, that Pershing Hall, headquarters of the Paris Post of the American Legion and of other American organizations in Paris, be closed April 30.

The situation caused a split in the premiership of the Legion post. Congress has appropriated $482,032.92 in funds left by the Stars and Stripes, the soldiers' World War newspaper, to pay the debts incurred during construction of the hall, and to endow the building. The American Legion in the United States declined to approve the negotiations unless the endowment were raised to $250,000.

Special Aid Meeting

Indianapolis, May 1 (AP)—A special Pershing Memorial Hall committee of the American Legion will meet here this afternoon without a quorum, to discuss the plan for wiping out the indebtedness of the structure and setting up an endowment fund for its upkeep.

National Commander Ray Murphy is chairman of the Memorial Hall committee and is scheduled to attend the meeting.

As Legion officials explained it, the situation in regard to the hall is this:

The building was erected after the World War with money obtained by popular subscription as a memorial to the A. E. F. Various organizations joined in the project and many Frenchmen hold stock.

When the stockholders began pressing for their money the Legion supported the movement in Congress to have approximately $500,000 left as a surplus from the "Stars and Stripes"—official A. E. F. publication—used to retire the stock and set up an endowment fund for the upkeep of the memorial.

The Legion proposed to administer the endowment fund but without profit to itself.

Then something happened to the plan for the retirement of the stock and nothing has been done.

Legion officials declined to divulge the new plan which will be considered today.

Geoghan Expects Full Wendell Story Today, Marcus Waives Stay

Brooklyn, May 1 (AP)—District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan said today he expected to have the full story by tonight of how Paul H. Wendel, disbarred Trenton lawyer, was kidnapped, tortured and forced to sign a "confession" he kidnapped and killed the Lindbergh baby.

Geoghan indicated he expected the Kings county grand jury would indict Sol Marcus, 23, of Trenton, N. J., as an accessory after the fact. Five men already are under indictment in the case which developed just before the execution of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, and delayed his death for three days.

Marcus is a prisoner in Trenton. His attorneys indicated last night they would not fight extradition to Brooklyn providing bail is fixed in Trenton.

Marcus, described by himself as a cigar store owner, and by the police as a bookmaker, is alleged to have delivered $150 in two installments to Mrs. Janet Bleefeld, wife of Murray Bleefeld, one of the five under indictment. Bleefeld is a fugitive.

A part of this money, Trenton police said, may have been used to finance the flight of Harry Weiss, Brooklyn taxicab driver, being held in $50,000 bail "for his own preservation." Weiss was brought back from Ohio early this week and is in Raymond street jail. Geoghan said he tried to commit suicide by hanging last night, and today was wearing handcuffs to prevent another attempt.

Meanwhile at Flemington, N. J., where Hauptmann was convicted of the Lindbergh baby's murder, the Hunterdon county grand jury called Ellis H. Parker, Burlington county detective chief, whose son, Ellis, is a fugitive. The jury is investigating a kidnapping complaint against Wendel made by Mrs. Anna Hauptmann on April 3, a few hours before her husband went to the electric chair.

Parker, Sr., carried on an independent investigation of the Lindbergh case. He told the Mercer county grand jury in Trenton a month ago he believed Wendel was "guilty as hell."

Hunterdon county court house observers expected the grand jury consideration of the Wendel charge would be quickly ended. Parker's secretary, Mrs. Anna Bading, was also called as a witness.

Extradition Waived.
Trenton, N. J., May 1 (AP)—Sol Marcus, arrested as an accessory in the Paul H. Wendel kidnapping, was waived extradition today and left immediately for Brooklyn, N. Y.

Anthrax Accused Sought
New York, May 1 (AP)—The federal government, using Edward F. McGrady, Labor Department trouble shooter, as the lever, threw its weight behind a move today to break the deadlock in negotiations for Accord in the anthrax industry.

Working to prevent a walkout of 100,000 miners, McGrady prepared to re-enter the long-drawn parley of operators and United Mine Workers' representatives over a new wage and working conditions contract.

The industry five-year-old contract was given its second extension last night, two hours before it would have expired at midnight, with what both sides had pictured would be disastrous results for the $600,000,000 industry.

Addis Ababa, May 1 (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie today ordered all able-bodied citizens in the vicinity of the Ethiopian capital to march north tomorrow in an attempt to halt the advances of Italian troops.

The march to the north will be led by Haile Getachou.

The emperor recommended that his soldiers carry provisions sufficient to sustain themselves for five days.

The capital is now practically deserted except for police to whom has been delegated the task of maintaining order in the city.

Italy Rejoices
(By The Associated Press)
With the fall of the Ethiopian capital expected momentarily, all Italy prepared for an "Adunata" or mobilization to celebrate victory over Ethiopia.

Emperor Haile Selassie declared, however, that the fall of Addis Ababa would not mean the end of his nation's fight against the Italians.

The Adunata is the second mobilization of the Fascist nations, summing almost half of Italy's 44,000,000 inhabitants to assemblies in all towns of the nation.

The previous Adunata was called one day before the Fascist armies crossed into Ethiopia to begin their campaign of conquest on October 3, 1935.

The later reports from the Italian forces in Ethiopia said the northern columns under Marshal Pietro Badoglio were on the high plateau leading directly to Addis Ababa, while the southern army under Gen. Rodolfo Graziani, drove toward its goal of Harar, second city of Ethiopia, after the capture of Sasa Baneh, 175 miles southeast of Harar, and of Daggah Bur, 25 miles northeast of Sasa Baneh.

Marshal Badoglio reported that the battle around Sasa Baneh was one of the bloodiest affairs of the war. He said the Ethiopians lost 5,999 men while the Italians suffered 1,850 casualties.

Emperor Haile Selassie told the Associated Press after a conference with high government officials in Addis Ababa that his army was not destroyed and would continue to wage war against the Italians even after his capital was captured.

The King of Kings denounced the alleged use of poison gas by the Fascist invaders. He praised the heroism of Ethiopians at the battle of Mai Ceu, near Lake Ashangi, in which his men were defeated.

Day of Joy
Rome, May 1—Italy, preparing for a general mobilization of "Adunata" in celebration of victory against Ethiopia, was informed today that the most recent Fascist advance in East Africa cost 6,550 total casualties.

Marshal Pietro Badoglio reported that his southern forces had occupied Daggah Bur, 150 miles southeast of Harar, after capturing Sasa Baneh, 25 miles away, in a 16-day fight.

The commanding marshal of Italian armed forces in East Africa said: "The enemy lost more than 5,999 men. Our losses . . . were 59 officers dead or wounded and 1,850 troops dead or wounded."

Badoglio's communiqué said: "The warriors of Sasa Baneh are in fight along the caravan route to Jijjira."

"The advance guard of our three columns united in perfect precision occupied Daggah Bur yesterday morning, April 30."

The pursuit continues despite continuously adverse atmospheric conditions and food conditions of the rivers."

"On the northern front, our troops occupied Debra Sina and Temaber Hill, while another column reached and fended the Gaddala River, about 100 kilometers (62.5 miles) from Addis Ababa."

"In the Debra Labor sector there were numerous important submissions of chiefs."

The news that the Italian legions were virtually in sight of Addis Ababa while Gen. Rodolfo Graziani and his men in the south were pushing forward toward Harar, meted Italy's anticipation of victory mobilization.

Communist-Socialist Parade in New York Sees Two Parties March Jointly for First Time, Ranks Number 300,000.

"LEAVE US ALONE"

Hitler Pleads for Peace, Asks Foreign Powers to Pay Attention to Own Problems.

(By The Associated Press)
The tramping of tens of thousands of soldiers in Moscow's Red Square, a plea for peace by Adolf Hitler, and a long Communist-Socialist parade in New York were highlights today of the observance of May Day, labor's international holiday.

Workers paraded in many countries, and in several states soldiers marched.

In a demonstration of Soviet Russia's military power, tanks and armored cars rolled past Lenin's Tomb. A fleet of 750 war planes droned over columns of troops.

Police estimated 300,000 persons would march in the New York parade, where for the first time Communists and Left-wing Socialists joined forces.

Germany's May Day was a "joy day" of thanks to Hitler, who told a youth rally, "we cannot use a generation of mama's boys."

Later, speaking in Berlin to thousands of May Day marchers, Hitler stressed his love of peace.

"In hatred-ridden Europe, we want to preserve peace," he said. "To the little politicians abroad who do not understand us I would say: Leave us alone to work out our own problems and you get on with your own."

French Festival
Great festivals of workers took place in the industrial cities of France. Hyde Park, London, was a rallying point for huge assemblies. Thousands of red banners waved in Madrid's May Day parade, but a holiday spirit prevailed as 60,000 celebrants marched.

Austria heard an announcement by Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg that 15,000 youths of the class of 1915 would be called for compulsory federal service—partly of civil and partly of military character—in October.

Filipino workers paraded peacefully in Manila, under the watchful eyes of police and constabulary men equipped with guns and gas bombs.

Three Mexican workers' organizations launched separate observances in Mexico City, where heavily reinforced guards were on duty.

St. Louis prepared for its first united May Day parade since the World War.

A blazing cross with a placard lettered "We will not tolerate Communism. (Signed) Ku Klux Klan," was found by police in a Cleveland suburb. Cleveland Communists planned a rally on the public square.

In Boston, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and members of the Communist party arranged simultaneous celebrations within hearing distance of each other.

Elsewhere in many cities of the United States, industrial plants closed while workers paraded and heard addresses.

Many families took a holiday and went picnicking, and on a number of college campuses festivals took place with dancing around a maypole.

Dr. Clarke Spoke To Rotary Boys

Thursday evening at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Boys' Club held at the Y. M. C. A., Dr. Harold Clarke, local veterinarian, spoke to the boys on animals, particularly the various kinds and classifications of dogs and horses. He told how race horses were developed and animals trained. Following Dr. Clarke's talk the boys showed their great interest by asking the speaker a large variety of questions which prolonged the meeting.

Several Rotarians were present at the meeting. In addition to Neland H. Fuller, Boys' Work Secretary of the "Y," Rotarians Harry Edson of the Rotary Boys' Committee, Alfred Schmitt, who is in charge of the program for the boys during the month of April, Joseph Morgan and John Eagan were present. Preceding the meeting the boys enjoyed their regular weekly period in the "Y" gym and their regular swim in the "Y" swimming pool.

Millions Starving In Chinese Famine

Hwaining, Honan Province, China, May 1 (AP)—Frightful famine conditions brought millions of Chinese peasants today to a choice between banditry and stoical waiting for death from starvation.

In some sections of Honan and Szechwan provinces a single handful of grain has become a great luxury for emaciated peasants whose ghastly pallor makes them resemble living skeletons.

Men and women attempting to work the wheatfields drop from hunger.

The central government's promises of relief have not been fulfilled, and men and women employed in an irrigation enterprise near Hwaining abandoned it because they were not paid enough to sustain strength.

Money has become so scarce, prices of foodstuffs so high and business so bad the inhabitants have stopped trying to find work.

Dismayed and despondent farmers exclaim: "Let's abandon work and try to save enough strength to keep alive until harvest time. We might as well die sleeping as working."

More desperate peasants declare: "If Nature denied us a living let us become bandits and take what we need."

The frightful need of the people has caused them to strip trees of their bark and devour cats, dogs, rats and even worms. Straw, weeds and sawdust have become foodstuffs to a people whose plight is described by Canadian and American missionaries as "tragic beyond belief."

Efforts to distribute food and money have become almost impractical and dangerous because of the rush of hunger maddened throngs. Armies of police are required to prevent rioting.

HEBREW SCHOOL CHILDREN TO CONDUCT SERVICES

The pupils of the Kingston Hebrew School will conduct the Friday evening services tonight at the "Agudas Achim" congregation.

Services will also be held at the above congregation on Saturday morning. Rabbi Isaac Teicher will deliver a sermon on "The Philosophy of Judaism."

The Sunday School classes will meet on Sunday at 10 a. m., and the daily Hebrew school classes every day between 4 and 8 p. m.

The children are now preparing a very interesting program for the "Lag Bomer" celebration to be held at the Hebrew school auditorium Sunday afternoon, May 10.

A joint meeting of the "Hebrew School Mothers" and the "Board of Education" was held last Tuesday night. Mrs. Goldie Berman presided. Rabbi Teicher, principal of the Hebrew School, outlined the school's program for the summer term. The "Hebrew School Mothers" decided to have a card party on Monday evening, May 18, for the benefit of the Hebrew School.

Popular Retriever Dates
Back to English History

The history of the retriever dates back to 1800, when a black-coated dog was brought to England and crossed with an English setter. This was supposed to have been the beginning of all retrievers, observes an authority in the Los Angeles Times. We find them now developed to a stage where they are divided into four classes: Golden, Flat-coated, Curly-coated and the Labrador.

The last was originally a much heavier dog than the present type, longer in body, fatter legs and not much to look at.

The eyes in the majority of breeds are required to be dark in shade. This may be because of a feeling that the dark eye denotes a higher grade of intellect, while the light-eyed dog, unable to express the same amount of feeling with his eyes, is often claimed treacherous. For this reason the fanciers of the breed hastened to overcome this criticism by crossing the Labrador with the dark-eyed Flat-coated retriever. In setting a trait, almost invariably other qualities are changed or added to a breed. It is not surprising therefore to discover some without the typical characteristics such as the water spaniel. However, the majority of them show no evidence of the original outcross.

ON THE POLITICAL FRONT

MRS. ALVIN T. HERT.

By The Associated Press.
If the Republicans could be said to have a dowager-queen that person might be Mrs. Alvin T. Hert, for years vice-chairman of the party's national committee.

In the campaigns of 1924 and 1928 she directed the women's Republican clubs, which she had helped organize in the decade before. Furthermore, she was national committee-woman and state vice-chairman for her party in her home state of Kentucky.

She stepped down from the director's post in the women's division for this campaign, content to offer her advice on speeches, speakers and appointments.

She inherited her political interests as well as her directorship in a rich manufacturing concern from her husband.

CONSTIPATION* MAY LOWER RESISTANCE TO GERMS

Can Be Corrected by Natural Laxative Food

Common constipation is due largely to insufficient "bulk" in the stool. It is a condition that should never be treated casually.

Long neglected, it may contribute to a general run-down condition. Your body lacks the strength it needs to fight off infection. You are much more likely to pick up a serious illness.

Guard against common constipation. Make sure the meals you eat contain plenty of "bulk." Kellogg's All-Bran is a generous source of effective "bulk."

Within the body, the "bulk" in All-Bran absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, and gently cleanses the system. This delicious cereal also furnishes vitamin B and contains iron.

Two tablespoonsful daily, with milk or cream, are usually sufficient. Southern cooks may regard All-Bran as a generous source of effective "bulk."

Serve All-Bran in some form each day, either as a cereal, or cooked into muffins, breads, etc. Eat it regularly for regular habits.

Guaranteed by the Kellogg Company. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Study of Jobs in U. S. Occupies Chamber

Washington, May 1 (AP)—After announcing its stand on taxes, trade agreements and other controversies of the day, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States embarked today on a nation-wide study to see how many jobs are available in private industry.

The chamber wound up its 24th annual convention late yesterday by re-electing Harper Sibley of Rochester, N. Y., as its president and adopting resolutions.

One of them attacked the New Deal's tax program, another called for continuation of its reciprocal trade agreements under what are termed adequate safeguards for American agriculture. Still others opposed government regulation of wages and hours and competition with private industry.

11 Persons Killed In Nazi Plane Crash

New Ulm, Bavaria, Germany, May 1 (AP)—A German military plane crashed during night maneuvers, it was learned today, killing 11 persons instantly, including the members of the crew.

The soldier plane plunged to death early in the morning of April 29, it was learned, but official sources declined to disclose details of the crash and civilians withheld strictly further news of the accident, the cause of which was unknown.

Industrial Minstrel Tonight in Reade's Kingston Theatre

Reapportionment Before Lawmakers

Tonight the Industrial Minstrel goes on at 8 o'clock in Reade's Kingston Theatre, featuring a cast of prominent amateur entertainers from Kingston, playing for the fund which will be used to bring factories to this city.

The show, directed by Frank Oulton, well known figure in local theatrical circles, is packed with variety in humor, songs, stories, dancing and novelty entertainment, that is expected to please the audience. Expectations are that there will be a capacity house.

Some of the songs of the minstrel are "Wake Up and Sing, The General's Past Asleep, I Wanna Tith 'em, You Started Me Dreaming, Lili Lili Jane, Macushie, Wahoo, Red Sails in the Sunset, Tavern in the Town, If You Love Me, Mama Don't Allow It, West Winds, Is La True About Dixie.

In the olio between the first and second part of the show, Ralph Mann will do some hand balancing and Harry Thord, proprietor of the Elite Dance Studio, 662 Broadway, will dance.

The Kingston Players Guild will be represented in the olio also, presenting "Men in White," a skit by A. E. Milliken. The cast includes a nurse, Gertrude Heiselein, a patient, Shirley Silverman, and three men in white—John Burgevin, Albert Milliken and James Martin.

"Lights Out," one of the bright spots on the musical side of the show, features a double male quartet—John Dunn, Martin Kelly, Bob Flynn, George Rich, George Teller, John Fisher and Thomas Quinn.

Lou's orchestra from Glascow, featuring Cosmo Davi, occupies another spot on the bill. Davi imitated Cab Calloway doing some of the numbers that made him famous on the stage, screen and radio.

Helen Stern Mann and Jules Ewig, assisted by a male chorus, will be featured in "On the Old Plantation," a musical sequence that is expected to be one of the most popular parts of the show.

The chorus includes: Ed Leahy, Bob Ross, Joe Brooks, Chet Weeks, Bob Baile, Charles Reis, Ferris Williams, Joe Brogan, Charles Brodhead, William Ballard, Jerry Yapp, Frank Reis, Vince Smedes, Myron Herrick, Jim Geoghan, Ben Toffel, Anteo Marchetti, Joe Clark, Harold Brooks, Arthur Fatum, Mary Glennon, Fletcher Wells, Irving Wells, Frank Murphy, Paul Freer, John Cunningham, James Caprotti, Mario Goffredi, William Powers, John Caprotti, Jack Harris, Dennis Brady, John Leahy, Vince Wolfersberg, Louis Carpenter, Joe Cavanaugh, Frank Aldala, John Connors, Bill Malsenholder, Huyler Van Wagenen, John Palsi, Anthony Arena, Ed Myers, Harry LaMothe, Henry Kohl, Leo Huymann.

An orchestra from the Musicians' Union, directed by Lyle Embree, pianist, will accompany the minstrel. Members of the musical ensemble are: Lyle Embree himself, Julius Teller, violin; Leo Moser and Fred Fahrnick, saxophones; Al Rossi, trumpet; Charles Weed, bass; and Thomas Bashall, traps.

Edward Luby Awarded His Letter at Navy

Edward Luby of East Kingston, former track star at Kingston High School and now in his second year at the United States Naval Academy, has been awarded a major N-in boxing. Luby was a well known miler at the high school, and also stood high in his studies.

The trowel unquestionably is the most treasured tool of what may be termed a "dirt gardener"—that is, one who knows and loves the feel of soil, rather than being content with planning, directing and discussing garden operations.

Players Guild Will Give 'The Ninth Guest'

The Kingston Players Guild, which on two previous occasions has entertained Kingston audiences with fast moving comedy, now invites the public to witness a drama in which death is the host.

The stirring drama selected by the Guild for its next presentation is "The Ninth Guest." It will be given in the Municipal Auditorium on May 15, and Albert Milliken, whose stage settings and arrangements have been found so satisfactory on other occasions, has promised that the acoustics will be taken care of in such a manner that on one in the audience will miss a single word.

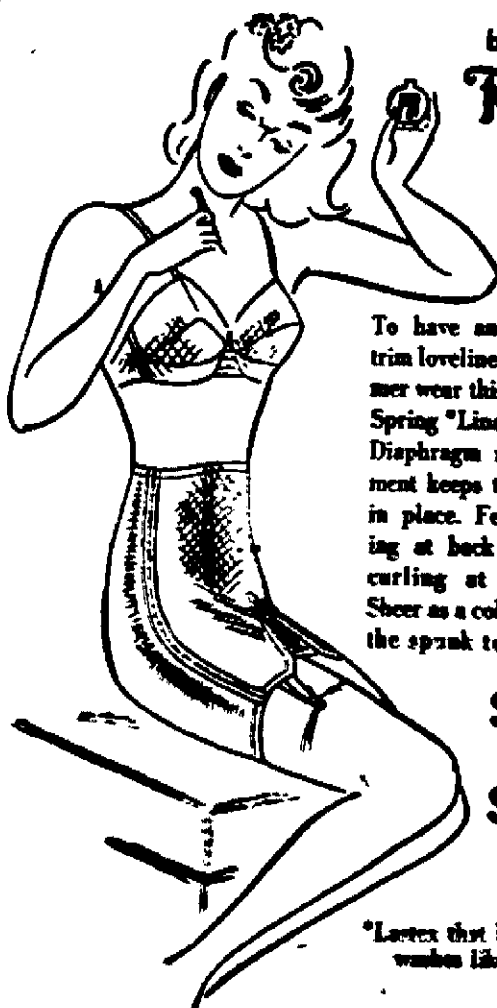

Railway freight revenue per ton-mile of Class I railroads declined 22.5 per cent during the past fourteen years, whereas revenue per passenger-mile declined 37.3 per cent, according to Dr. Julius H. Parmelee, director, Bureau of Railway Economics of the Association of American Railroads.

Swiss Fortify All Borders of Alpine Domain

By CHARLES FOLTZ

Berne (AP)—Switzerland has begun fortifying her frontiers and it costs a lot of money because the Swiss trust none of their neighbors.

For more than a century the Swiss have been satisfied with the Alps to defend their neutrality and independence. Only a few small blockhouses guarded strategic passes where the landwehr, Swiss frontier troops, watched for invaders.

After the war Swiss military experts watched their rearming neighbors with alarm. Broad highways lead from the German-Swiss frontier at Basel toward Bannock in France through unprotected Swiss valleys.

Dread Belgium's Role

If war comes, asked Swiss army men, could not Switzerland be "the next Belgium" if Germany should pick the most vulnerable frontier for a dash to France?

Switzerland's answer appeared in the form of a military budget of $35 million Swiss francs (about $7,500,000), the largest sum ever approved by the federal council for any budget in Swiss history. Much of it was earmarked for fortifications.

Swiss socialists immediately began a campaign to have all the money spent in strengthening the German and Italian frontiers where nazis and fascists ruled.

The federal council, however, announced that all the frontiers would be fortified. Whether "all the frontiers" included the 20-mile border of the tiny principality of Liechtenstein was not stated, but Frenchmen were both surprised and hurt to hear that Swiss troops were building earthworks opposite the French frontier.

French Protests Stilled

Reports that the fortifications were to be reversible so that they could be used to fight an army marching through Switzerland toward France, calmed French protests along with the gentle Swiss reminder that the last armies to invade the cantons were French troops under Napoleon.

Austria's frontier is also to be guarded by earthworks but the Swiss frontiers on Italy and Germany are to be more strongly fortified. Swiss nazis already have worried the authorities by their activities and Mussolini, who has a long memory, was finger-printed by the Swiss police in the days before fascism.

Fortifications of the Italian border is not difficult, for the Alps themselves form far better barriers than man-made blockhouses. Most of the money, Swiss military men said, is being spent in preparing to block a German invasion along the 200-mile German frontier.

Youth Council Plans To Organize County

The Ulster County Christian Youth Council will hold its first meeting on Monday evening, May 4, at 7:45 at the Y. M. C. A. here. The meeting will not be restricted to cabinet or council members but will be open to anyone who is interested in working with the Council.

Young people and their leaders from all parts of Ulster county will start plans for a year of inter-denominational activities that is expected to surpass any of the partial successes of former years. Christian Endeavors, Epworth Leagues, Luther Leagues, Youth Fellowship Leagues, World Wide Guilds, and others will be represented in an endeavor to solve some of the problems that Christian young people are facing today.

The meeting will consider a more thorough organization of the areas into which the county is divided for Youth Council work. The present areas are: Saugerties, Ellenville, New Paltz and Highland, Phoenixia, and Kingston, each of these including the surrounding vicinity. Representatives are expected from many Christian Youth organizations in these districts.

The program for the evening will include besides the business meeting, a model worship service, and 45 minutes of exciting recreation, followed by refreshments.

Strawberries Were Too Cheap

Strawberries are not yet quite as cheap as an item in the Empire Community ad Thursday night would indicate. The price given was two quarts for 25c. It should have read two pints for 25c.

Corrosive sublimate is highly effective in combating cabbage maggot and is probably the chief material used by most growers, although several other methods of treating early cabbage and cauliflower for maggot, including the use of calomel, are worth considering.

Juvenile suits show nautical theme.

Lana Merwin

Juvenile wash suits and frocks for little brothers and sisters continue high in favor and are strongly featured for the Summer season in attractive nautical themes. A noted detail of the new styles, however, is that the garments are not styled exactly alike in every case, though they use the same fabric.

Sister's dress may be fashioned of dotted swiss or voile throughout while only the top of brother's suit uses that fabric—his trousers of shantung or linen are of the same color and fabric which provides trimming contrast on sister's frock.

Some of the new models are fashioned entirely of linen, pique or shantung while others combine two different fabrics, such as pique voile with shantung or dotted swiss with shantung. Skipper blue, cherry red, yellow, brown and white predominate in two-tone combinations.

In the sketch above, sister's dress of white linen, has pleated cap sleeves and a sailor's applique and braid trimmings. Little brother's companion suit uses the white linen for button-on-top and skipper blue for his linen trousers. The applique and braid trimming is the same as used on sister's frock.

Knitted Edgings Are Very Fetching

Household Arts by Alice Brooks

Dainty Lace Effective Finish for Linens, Lingerie, Shavings

PATTERN 5579

Very fetching of compliments—these knitted edgings, which make a model homemaker doubly proud of her lingerie, linens and closet shelves. You can knit one or all of these dainty designs so easily, and only two widths, and see how prettily they'll finish off a scarf, towel, pillow case or slip. Does the collar and cuff set give you ideas?

In pattern 5579 you will find directions for the edgings shown; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to the Kingston Daily Freeman Household Arts Dept., 233 W. 14th street, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and PATTERN NUMBER.

"DANGER—CURVES AHEAD?" NOT IN THIS SLENDERIZING MARIAN MARTIN FROCK

PATTERN 9335

Let your waistline be your guide—to slenderness! In this slimming Marian Martin afternoon frock designed for larger sizes, three neat tucks "zip in" at the waist line making it fit so smoothly that a belt is not necessary. The belted silhouette is a more slender one, too! Have you noticed that low V necklines are coming back into favor? We are glad to see them, too, for they are nice and cool on warm summer days. The wide-cape collar falling softly over the arms is another cool feature of this model, while a paneled skirt distracts attention from ample hips. Triple sheer, chiffon, or voile would be nice for all occasions. Dark moor-tone sheers, or wisely chosen prints are equally popular. Complete Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9335 may be ordered only in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTY CENTS in coin or stamps (coin preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER, and SIZE of each pattern.

Send for our Marian Martin Summer Pattern Book—just out! See what's latest for women of every age, in every fascinating summer role—the stay-at-home, the vacationer, the bride, the deb sporting, they are romping in the sun! Special slenderizing fashions, too; and news of the latest fabrics and accessories. Order this book now! Price of Book Fifteen Cents. Book and a Pattern Together, Twenty-Five Cents.

Hi-Y Banquet Next Wednesday

The Hi-Y Faculty Banquet will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday, May 6. The occasion is an annual party staged by the Kingston Hi-Y Clubs at which time the students have the teachers as their guests. For some time the committee in charge of arrangements have been busy at their jobs and announce that this year's get-together of Hi-Y members and their teachers should top all past occasions.

The program will really be in two sections. First, the banquet proper with its songs, toasts, and specialty numbers. Then the period of fun and frolic in the "Y" gym where the program committee has planned a series of games that will make everyone present forget the formalities and the dignity of the classroom.

Hi-Y members on the committee planning the occasion are: General chairman, Barbara Friend; program committee: Roger Salzman, Carol Ensign, Dorothy Baddenfield, John McCullough; decoration committee: Elaine Goldman, Evelyn Fagher, Arthur Morrill, Gilbert Richter; publicity committee: Dorothy Groene and Earl Van Valkenburgh; ticket committee: Willis Locke, Joseph Heaney and Joe Deegen, Jr.

The ticket committee has announced that reservations should be made as early as possible and that the sale of tickets will close on Monday night.

Nobody's pleasanter to do business with than the man who doesn't intend to pay.

A certain man, whom we shall call Smith, had occasion to reprimand his wife.

Smith—I think, dear, that you are a little occasionally.

Wife (indignant)—Well, I think you are a wife's duty.

Smith—Wife's duty?

Wife—Yes, to speak well of her husband occasionally.

Poor little Henpecked Husband (bleating)—But, my dear, you've been talking for half an hour and I haven't said a word.

Wife (snapping)—No, you haven't said anything, but you've been listening in a most aggravating manner, and I'm not going to stand for it.

The decision to make an effort to improve is the most important step in self-improvement.

PREVIEWED

Today

Broadway: "Snowed Under."

First National has tossed out an interesting "quickie" in the feature film at the Broadway, a satirical and funny tale of matrimonial problems with George Brent, Genevieve Tobin, Glenda Farrell, Patricia Ellis and Frank McHugh in the important assignments. It's all about a much sought after young gentleman who one day finds himself snowed in with his first wife, his second wife and his wife to be all snowed in with him and all interested in his future. There are several swell laughs and the acting is capable.

Kingston: "The Kingston Industrial Minstrel Show."

Orpheum: "Music Goes Round" and "Wild Mustang." Harry Richman, Rochelle Hudson and Walter Connolly are impressive in this ordinary musical comedy drama wherein a swanky Broadway actor goes south for a rest and has a lot of fun playing in a Show Boat troupe. The music is good and the dances are enjoyable. "Wild Mustang" is the other feature, a back to nature picture filmed against the wide open spaces.

Tomorrow

Broadway: "Little Lord Fauntleroy"

Freddie Bartholomew, minus any fancy curls or velvet suits, lives the title role of this splendid story with a resilience and a charm that puts this picture into a class by itself. The story is so universally known and loved that almost everyone has at some time or other read the tale of the little New York boy who becomes an English lord. A carefully chosen cast is of tremendous help to the little star and the work of C. Aubrey Smith and Doores Costello Barrymore, who makes her screen comeback in this picture, is especially helpful. There are moments of excitement, much pathos and some excellent comedy. The adaptation was handled by Hugh Walpole and John Cromwell directed. A don't miss attraction on that is recommended to the entire family.

Kingston: "The Languished Hour."

Desperate goings on mark the drama at the Kingston, a blend of mystery, deceit, blackmail and sinister motives running rampant here, there and everywhere. The story is filled with danger, intrigue and humor and a fine cast of players race through the bewilderment of the plot with grim satisfaction. The cast offers Franchot Tone and Loretta Young, who prove a fine co-starring team, and Lewis Stone, Roland Young, Dudley Digges and Jessie Ralph are featured. A Sam Wood production. Orpheum: Same.

The growing of early cabbage and cauliflower to capture the high prices of the early market is rapidly becoming an important farm enterprise in New York state.

HIGHLAND

Highland, May 1—The May meeting of the trustees of the school district will be held Friday evening in the school.

The former Benny Terwilliger property on Main street has been leased by Louis Palmer from A. D. and A. W. Lent. Mr. Palmer has had the gaping hole in front of the building filled in and the large yard in the rear of the building well cleaned up. This makes a large parking place and it is said that an opening will be made so that cars may enter on Main street and depart through the present Methodist Church yard. Such arrangements could help materially in relieving the usual congestion and lack of parking space along the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Martin, Dorothy Ann Olree and Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cotten, enjoyed a motor ride through Connecticut on Sunday.

The service club of Rondout Presbyterian Church will be entertained Monday evening by the Evening Reading Circle at the home of Mrs. C. W. Rathgeb.

The next meeting of the Officers Club of Order of Eastern Star will be Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Tompkins with Mrs. Bertram Cottle assisting hostess.

G. Hallock Mackey, librarian of the local library, attended the district librarians meeting in Poughkeepsie on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffin, who left in December for Summit and Montclair, N. J., have returned and opened their home, Stony Croft.

Mrs. William Waterbury left Tuesday for New York where she will remain for several weeks.

The Wednesday luncheon and bridge club met Wednesday with Mrs. A. Jerome Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Rhodes quietly celebrated their 32nd wedding anniversary on Monday.

Mrs. James Smith moved on Thursday to the Chase house into the rooms she formerly occupied.

Mr. Goudy, owner of the house, had contemplated changes in the interior of the house which he decided not to make, so Mrs. Smith returns.

Mrs. William H. Wilcox of Poughkeepsie spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Abram Rhodes.

War pictures are to be shown Monday night at the Legion rooms by Miss F. Winchester. The meeting will follow the Lions Club meeting.

HIGHLAND DRUM CORPS PRESENTED VARIETY SHOW

Highland, May 1—The Highland Drum Corps presented a variety show and amateur performance Tuesday evening in St. Augustine's Hall to a packed room when the following program was given: The opening number, a minstrel, had Walter Clark as the boss, Edward Hubbard, busy janitor; Gabriel De Lorenzo, Tuff Johnston, Philip Pampinella, Polka Dot, Gus Rizzo, Song Without Words, Leo Rizzo and Fred Erichsen. Jimmie twins, Peter Roumells, Lazy, George Miller, Jr., Bones, Tommy Brescia, Theron Woolsey, John DeLorenzo, assistants.

Frank Borquist acted as master of ceremonies for the second act, which featured the amateurs, and in the third act Edward Hubbard opened with a song, "Just Something."

Emma Couse gave a tap dance; John O'Connor, trumpet solo; Sam DiStasi, violin solo. At the record man, rendered an accordion solo.

Owing to a death in the family Miss Elinor Hubbard of Poughkeepsie was unable to be present for a tap dance. Edward Hubbard thanked the audience for their support and asked that their interest be continued.

The Highland Drum Corps was splendid training for the youth. He assured the audience that in their rooms no gambling was allowed nor were any intoxicants permitted. The local corps has joined the Hudson Valley Corps Association in which there are corps from Hyde Park, Beacon, Middletown, Poughkeepsie, Port Ewen and Danbury, Conn. already members and it was expected that Hudson joined up this week, and with a little effort the district meeting can be held in Highland this summer, a fact that advances the community.

Posters advertising the event had been made by students in the art department under Miss Helen Sykes.

To Daniel Brevetti went first prize; Eleanor Thompson, second, and Ruth Traver the third prize. The judges were George May, Ledyard Ball and Mrs. George P. Muller.

The amateurs who scored hits and prizes were Jean Nails, tap dances; Vincent Downer, guitar player and singer of cowboy songs, second prize, and Nettie Proanina, tap dancer, third prize.

A type of dish which is excellent to prepare on cleaning days is the sort which can be put together in fifteen to twenty minutes, popped into the oven and left to shift for itself for the rest of the cooking period.

Two Big Problems Baffle Youth

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Two major problems baffle youth in the late teens—selection of a life occupation and of a life mate—and no organization is offering adequate aid, a college professor told a conference on juvenile delinquency today.

"The youth of this age," Prof. Lincoln D. Kelsey of Cornell University told the Albany City Club's 15th annual conference, "has not found his life occupation and he has not found his life mate.

"He therefore is faced with the problem of getting enough money to go to a dance or to make associations with young people of the opposite sex."

Actual delinquency, however, results mainly from broken homes, Frederick A. Moran, executive director of the State Division of Parole, declared. Moran said that "40 per cent of the young inmates of our jails come from broken homes—homes that have been broken through death or divorce, principally death."

Gandhi Spins New Plan For India As British Guard Against Surprise

Mahatma Gandhi, the scrawny little Hindu whose leadership of the independence movement in India caused many an official British headache in the past, has plans for future action but will not reveal them.

By JAMES A. MILLS

Delhi, India (AP)—From the position of a world figure, Mahatma Gandhi, India's erstwhile champion of liberty, has declined almost into obscurity.

This is not because the Mahatma has lost any of his popularity or prestige among India's teeming millions of peasants, but rather because the man who has been fighting the British Empire for 40 years, has deliberately sought seclusion, to study the causes of his failure to win independence for India, and to plan the future.

Although the Mahatma temporarily is out of the limelight, he exercises as much power and influence today among the Indian masses as he ever did.

He still is venerated almost as a god. The people appear to have infinite faith in his honesty, sincerity and methods.

Early Emergency Predicted

The Indian leader no longer makes speeches, writes articles, or does spectacular things. For that reason friends say his retirement will be nothing like 20 years, but more like a single year.

They predict that some day he will spring a surprise on the British authorities, something spectacular that again will rivet world attention upon him.

The British authorities themselves frankly express misgivings about what he may do when the new London-made constitution is launched in India.

"The Mahatma is not giving away his plans. When I approached him at his little hut in the 'untouchables' colony, on the outskirts of Delhi, and asked him for a statement on his program, he said:

"A good general never discloses his plans until the day of action. America must wait until then. Then it will see for itself what I am doing. For the present I must detach myself from the outer world and meditate."

Blood Pressure Chief Ill

Despite alarming reports respecting Gandhi's health, I found him in excellent condition. If anything, he appeared more alert and younger than when I last saw him in 1931. But his friends say his fluctuating blood pressure, which sometimes rises alarmingly, gives his doctors a good deal of worry.

They also say that the wiry and tenacious little leader lacks the energy and endurance he showed in bygone years. His memory, too, they declare, has become impaired, and he is not so quick of thought and speech as formerly. At times, they say, he has to grope for the right word or phrase.

Those around him, including Miss Madeleine Slade, his English disciple, look after the Mahatma as though he were a frail flower. "He is so precious to India," he says, "that we must prolong his life until India has achieved its full independence."

HUMAN TEETH USELESS. MAHATMA GANDHI LIPS

Delhi, India (AP)—Although he had had all his teeth removed, Mahatma Gandhi, India's little 67-year-old rebel, refuses to wear false teeth, and therefore lips. "Artificial teeth," he says, "form only another form of modern torture. If people confined themselves to wholesome liquid food, like goat's milk, they wouldn't need teeth."

For many years the bizarre Hindu wore an upper set of false teeth, but only at meal-time. Miss Madeleine Slade, his English disciple, who was custodian of the plate, has put the false ivory away on a shelf.

the outer world seldom hears about him.

He appears to be doing a sort of Rip Van Winkle stunt, but his

THE ROGER BAER STUDIOS TO GIVE SECOND RECITAL

Sunday, May 3, the Roger Baer Studios will give the second of a series of musical recitals in the music room of the Governor Clinton Hotel. This recital will be given by 19 of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth form students.

A week ago, students of the first and second form played to an audience of 157 music lovers of this city. Beacon, Accord and Kerhonkson. This recital was composed of classical and popular compositions.

This Sunday the program will be made up of classical, modern and popular compositions. This is the first attempt for the Roger Baer studios to introduce compositions written in the modern form of composing.

The instruments that will be featured are piano, accordion, clarinet, violin and brass instruments. This variety will give its audience a pleasurable hour of musical entertainment.

The recital is free to the public and will begin promptly at 4 o'clock. Another feature of the Roger Baer Studios will be a musical program called "The Scampers of 1936" which will be given at the Broadway Theatre in June. Date will be announced later. Thirty-five star performers will take part in this show, including Roger Baer and his 12 piece orchestra.

ACTRESS SUFFERS GUNSHOT WOUND

Gloria Gaudy, 16, actress-daughter of Bill Gaudy, drama critic, was found in the New York apartment of her playwright father, Sidney Kingsley, Sunday afternoon at 12:30, suffering a gunshot wound of the chest and was self-inflicted. Her father claimed the shooting was self-defense. Miss Gaudy and Kingsley are shown above. (Associated Press Photo)

Double Parking Club Is Organized in City

The Colonial Branch of the Double Parking Club was organized here yesterday afternoon when the police arrested four auto drivers on charges of double parking on Broadway. The four were Morris Weiner of 55 Broadway, Christian Schoentag of the Saugerties road, Aldo Broglio of West Park and Clark Gavit of Port Ewen.

This morning Judge Culliton suspended sentence on the four, but told them that with summer approaching traffic is getting heavier and that double parking on Broadway increased the traffic hazard, and that it would be much easier and safer if they drove half a block out of their way to find a place to park, rather than obstruct traffic.

PICTURE PROGRAM AT MORAN ASSEMBLY

A program of motion pictures with sound effects, which proved to be both instructive and entertaining, was presented on Wednesday morning at the Moran School of Business, Burgevin Building, under the auspices of the Colonial City Chevrolet, Inc.

First was shown an up-to-date news reel depicting, among other things, the workings of the new parking meter in operation in the business section of certain large cities.

The students manifested considerable interest in a reel entitled "Steepchasing." In this picture the training of horses for steepchasing was illustrated most interestingly. It concluded with a thrilling steepchase in which an automobile competed with four thoroughbred horses, the car taking the hurdles in amazing fashion and finishing first.

Another reel showed the scientific study of stream-lining by automobile manufacturers. Comparisons with birds, fish, divers, airplanes and dirigibles—gave the students a crystal clear understanding of a somewhat technical subject. The parabola was cited as the design which most completely eliminates wind resistance.

Scenes from the U. S. Army Air School at Randolph Field, Texas, featured a reel which graphically portrayed the exacting physical tests and the rigorous training which aspirants to the flying service must undergo. This reel might have been termed an intensive course in learning to fly. After stressing the importance of complete mastery of flying technique, the reel demonstrated how equally important it was for drivers of automobiles to learn as much as possible concerning their cars—their possibilities and their limitations. It gave a glimpse of possible future developments—elevated highways permitting speeds of 120 miles an hour with safety.

U. S. Naval planes figured in another reel showing that turrets of battleships were so constructed as to withstand the impact of exploding bombs dropped from airplanes. A brief historical sketch of the development of the arch and the dome in architectural design was also included. The strength and beauty of the arch, and the universal adaptation of the dome in the planning of edifices designed to reflect majesty and power, were portrayed in pictures of striking beauty.

er, were portrayed in pictures of striking beauty.

The program was in charge of Roy M. Sullivan of the Colonial City Chevrolet, Inc., who introduced Messrs. Brower and Thompson of the Chevrolet Company. The pictures were enthusiastically received by the students of the Moran School who showed very convincingly their keen appreciation of the entire program.

BY INDUSTRY AND TRADE

Unemployment in the first quarter of 1936 is estimated by the National Industrial Conference Board to total about 8,800,000. This is virtually unchanged from the average of the past two years and is more than six and one-half times the 1929 unemployment figure. The chart above illustrates the situation, by years, each man being symbolic of 2,000,000 persons.

This is the second of a series of six articles on the progress of economic recovery.

By FREDERICK R. GARDNER,
(Associated Press Business Writer.)

Washington (AP)—While the hammer of American industry beat today at the fastest tempo in six years, they chip away but slowly at the stubborn mass of unemployment.

Although no census of the jobs has been taken, latest estimates range from 8,800,000 by the National Industrial Conference Board to 12,550,000 by the American Federation of Labor.

Such calculations indicate a pronounced lag between recovery in employment and the sweeping pick-up in industrial production.

The estimates of the National Industrial Conference Board, a statistical organization supported by corporations, show that the huge accumulation of jobs from 1929 to 1935 has been reduced by only about 30 per cent. The American Federation of Labor, using a different basis for its computation, figures that less than 25 per cent of the extreme increase in idleness has been hammered away.

Industry 50 Per Cent Better.
Most statistical measurements show that about half of the loss in industrial production between 1929 and early 1933 has been recovered. The U. S. bureau of labor statistics shows a similar recovery in factory employment.

What is perplexing to many analysts, however, is the fact that in the later phases of recovery, factory employment has not kept pace with the gains in production.

For instance, for the last two years alone, the federal reserve board figures show a jump in industrial production of about 12 per cent, while the bureau of labor statistics shows a gain in factory employment in that period of only 7 per cent. This brings up what is perhaps the most controversial phase of the entire problem, the growing use of labor saving machinery.

Dispute Over the Machine.

How many men have been displaced by machines? How much of the idleness is what is known as technological unemployment?

Labor leaders say much of it is due to this cause, and demand a shorter work week.

A number of industrialists, on the other hand, assert that labor saving machinery increases employment by adding to the list of cheap production, making more jobs in distributing, selling and servicing the increased outturn of useful appliances and goods.

Then whence comes this huge army of jobless?

Among the explanations offered is the estimated 5,000,000 added to America's population in the last six years.

Another factor cited is that building and construction activities still are relatively depressed, although there has been pronounced improvement in the past year. Employment also appears to lag in the miscellaneous services, embracing that vast army of workers who wait on tables, shine shoes, deliver ice and do a host of other odd jobs.

Capital Timid?

Business analysts say also that in the early phases of recovery, capital is timid and new enterprises are slow to develop. They explain that the development of a new industry which would thrive as the automobile industry did in the decade after the World War might greatly alter the scene.

Another factor tending to deter the decrease in the total of unemployed, some point out, is that many workers, in the worst of the depression, were employed only one or two days a week. They now receive fatter pay envelopes, but at no time were they listed as unemployed.

In the meantime, the government continues to support millions of families with relief funds. Latest estimates indicate that the number of persons so supported, including those able to work and their dependents, is around 19,000,000.

(In the third article, Frank I. Weller of the Washington staff of the Associated Press, will discuss recovery in agriculture.)

FLASHES OF LIFE SKETCHED IN BRIEF

Orangeburg, S. C.—The maxim says the early bird gets the worm, but the bird who stayed up all night got a goldfish.

It happened at the home of H. C. Wannamaker, Sr., who reported an owl caught a goldfish from a pool in his backyard, then saw in a tree overhead while Wannamaker and the neighbors threw rocks at it.

For The Defense

POLITICS at Random

THE Michigan Republicans surprised many of the political prognosticators by their open endorsement of Senator Vandenberg for President.

It had been assumed widely that, however strong the sentiment for him might be in his home state, that the brakes would be kept on effectively until convention time.

Senator Vandenberg long has been viewed by his friends as the No. 1 dark horse possibility for the nomination in case of a deadlock. Many of these friends have argued that absolute aloofness from the pre-convention scramble would strengthen him in that position.

If he had no delegates at all pledged to him, it was suggested, he could hardly be accused of having kept a single vote away from any other candidate, and he would come up to the starting post singularly free of those animosities which normally spring up among presidential aspirants.

It can only be conjectured whether, or in what degree, the action of the Michigan state convention may have changed that situation.

Faithful To Role

THE senator himself has been entirely faithful to the role marked out by tradition for presidential dark horses.

He has become somewhat more active in recent months in the senate where he has sworn official duties to perform, but he has embarked on no extended speaking trips and if he has any organization outside of Michigan no one has been able to discover it.

He rarely has referred in his speeches to the coming presidential contest, and he had made no public comment on the activities of the several candidates. He has conferred in private with adherents of the various rival camps, but seems to have done nothing and said nothing to offend any of them.

During all of this time talk of his availability as a compromise candidate has persisted. In some respects, the prevalence of this talk has gone against Vandenberg, in view of his own continued failure to ask for delegates or even declare himself a recipient.

The inherent thoughts of Senator Vandenberg's Michigan admirers are not available, but it would seem that only one or two explanations are possible.

Perhaps they felt this style of campaign really was acting nowhere, and that the nomination was about to be foreclosed for someone else; or perhaps they decided that regardless of the wisdom of the first approach, the time had come for a bolder strategy.

Now A Candidate?
AT ANY rate, the Michigan Republicans have done what they could to put the Vandenberg hat into the ring, and he has expressed gratification at the act. Future calculations of the delegate situation must go on from that point.

The development, furthermore, has come at a time when it appears certain the national convention will contain a very large number of uninstructed delegates. Many of these are pledged to one candidate or another, but the nature and binding quality of such pledges vary widely. Many are not openly pledged to anyone.

Does the Michigan action, plus the circumstances under which it was taken, remove Senator Vandenberg technically from the dark horse paddock weeks sooner than expected, and put him definitely among the candidates?

If so, does it mean that Senator Stetson or someone else now moves up into the vacancy thus created? Only the future—perhaps only the convention itself—can answer these questions.

Britain May Back Turkish Plan for Dardanelles Guns

By ROGER D. GREENE

London (AP)—Strong British support of Turkey's request for permission to fortify the Dardanelles, the 17-mile strait linking the Aegean with the Sea of Marmora, when the League of Nations acts on the case in May, is forecast here.

Suave Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, it is predicted, will seize on the occasion to administer a velvet-gloved slap at Hitler's world-defying method of treaty-scraping in contrast to the reasonable procedure adopted by Turkey's dictator, President Kamal Ataturk. Where the Nazi leader deliberately challenged the Locarno signatories—Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy—by marching his troops into the demilitarized Rhineland, the Turkish dictator formally appealed to the League and to the signatory powers of the Treaty of Locarno, under which the Dardanelles was demilitarized in 1923.

British Applaud Ataturk

In his role as Europe's champion of diplomatic decorum, Eden may be expected to applaud Turkey's restraint in not resorting to the Hitlerian fait accompli method of hitting first and asking questions afterward.

Ataturk's moderation made a deep impression in British government circles, particularly since it followed a series of treaty ruptures, such as Germany's violation of the Treaty of Versailles in reintroducing conscription, March 16, 1935, Germany's violation of Locarno by remilitarizing the Rhineland March 7, 1936, and Austria's recent repudiation of the treaty of St. Germain by ordering conscription.

Beward For Law Abiding

Today, Hungary and Bulgaria, above of the countries "demilitarized" after the World War, stand bound by treaty restrictions.

But Turkey has at least sought permission from the powers concerned—Britain, France, Italy, Bulgaria, Russia, Rumania, Greece, Yugoslavia and Japan—and informed quarters in London express little doubt that her request will be granted if only as a reward for law-respecting procedure.

"A thousand and one ways to make money," reads an advertisement. But the easiest way is still copyrighted by the government—just minting it.

Time Is Daylight Saving.

New York, May 1 (AP)—The twice postponed interview of Gov. Alfred M. Landon of Kansas, Republican presidential possibility, has again been rescheduled for WABC-CBS. The new date is 8:30 next Thursday evening. H. V. Kaltenborn is to ask the questions, with the broadcast coming from the governor's home in Topeka.

Another forthcoming broadcast in which Gov. Landon is to be heard has been listed for May 18 by WJZ-NBC. It will be his address to the graduating class of the Attica, Kan., High School.

Two over-Sunday special pickups are being prepared. The first, Sunday night on CBS at 8, will be a half-hour of the mass benefit performance at Madison Square Garden, New York, for the relief of "Victims of Persecution in Europe." It is under auspices of the Labor Chest of the A. F. of L. with speakers to include Matthew Woll, Wm. A. Green and Dr. Albert Einstein. The entertainment going on the air will be music by a 200-piece symphony.

Sir Malcolm Campbell, high speed auto driver, and A. B. Jenkins, holder of 85 speed records, the former in London and the latter in New York, are to have a two-day broadcast in Monday program at 12:30 p. m., on behalf of highway safety. WEAF-NBC is to carry it.

The typography of the apparently doomed capital of Ethiopia is shown in this drawing, with principal buildings indicated. Emperor Haile Selassie was reported to have returned to the city and immediately seized the American legation.

Soviet Parade Marks May Day

ed men and the women of the Fascist Auxiliary, comprising almost half of Italy's population of 44,000,000, to gather in military formation in 7,329 cities, towns and villages.

One day less than seven months ago, the first Adunata was called, the day before Italy's East African army marched across the Eritrean border into Ethiopia October 3.

Then Il Duce declared his determination to enter Ethiopia and shouted his defiance to any League of Nations sanctions. Today, the Italians rejoiced over the arrival of the Fascist armies in the heart of Emperor Haile Selassie's domain.

Italian newspapers set up special front pages, ready to rush to the streets with extras the moment that the occupation of Addis Ababa was announced.

Workmen wired the broad plazas of Rome, installing loudspeakers to carry the final call to the Adunata, with sirens, church bells and radio announcements from the Fascist headquarters to command the Black-shirt units to move to their posts.

Selassie Remains

Addis Ababa, May 1 (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie, vowing that Ethiopia would fight "until the last soldier and the last inch," remained in Addis Ababa this morning despite the approaching advance of the Italian army on the capital.

The imperial government's defense plans were not disclosed officially, but informed sources believed the King of Kings intended to abandon the capital and organize a more efficient line of resistance 60 miles to the west in the mountainous forest region.

The emperor, returning from the northern front, entered Addis Ababa yesterday.

"The majority of our army is not destroyed, and the morale of the troops is excellent," he told the Associated Press.

"Even occupation of Addis Ababa does not signify destruction of the empire."

Although keeping his plans for the future secret, the emperor told the Associated Press "Addis Ababa will continue to remain an open town," indicating that he did not intend to bring troops to the capital.

"Act of State"

Berlin, May 1 (AP)—In what was termed an "act of state" in the Lustgarten, Reichsfuehrer Hitler again stressed his love of peace today as he addressed hundreds of thousands of persons who had marched five miles in procession.

"My recent peace offer," declared Hitler, "was not framed by lawyers. It was a plain common sense offer, which, if accepted, would insure peace all around."

"Yet, on top of this, have come all sorts of foreign lies about Germany invading or about to invade Austria or Czechoslovakia."

"Who are those poisoners of the atmosphere?"

The vast audience yelled back at him: "Jews!"

Although the day had been gloomy, the sun broke through clouds as Hitler mounted the rostrum.

He began his speech by comparing this day to previous May Days "when cabinets trembled and we were relieved if the day passed with only a few killed and wounded."

Today, he said, the regime was supported not by barons but by the hearts of the people.

Said the Reichsfuehrer: "In a hatred-ridden Europe, we want to preserve peace and to the little politicians abroad who do not understand us I would say: Leave us alone to work out our own problems and you get on with your own."

Referring to Germany's restricted area and lack of raw materials, Hitler said all forces in the nation had not yet been welded into a homogeneous whole.

"When that is achieved," he said, "our will will be wholly concentrated and we will indeed be unconquerable."

Addressing a youth rally, Hitler told German youngsters they had good reason to rejoice.

"You live in a new young Reich, filled with joyous life, strong hope and invincible confidence—in a Reich with young new ideas and filled with young new forces," Der Fuehrer declared.

Adding a sterner note, however, he said:

"You must learn sacrifice. You must be hard. We cannot use a generation of mamma's boys, of spoiled children. What we need are boys and girls who will later become strong men and brave women."

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, May 1—Hope Lodge, No. 65, K. of P., will hold its regular meeting this evening.

The patronage of the public will be appreciated at the P-T-A food sale, which will be held in Spinnenweber's lunchroom at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

WOODSTOCK LEVEL CLUB DECIDES TO POSTPONE PLAY

The Woodstock Level Club at its meeting April 23, decided to postpone indefinitely the proposed play that was to be produced by the Woodstock Community Players.

The Club will hold another card party on the night of May 7. There will be the usual tables for bridge and pinocle, also refreshments. Arrangements will be provided for those who wish to play "Monopoly."

Largest Trees in Canada

The Douglas fir attains the largest size of any tree in Canada, and, with the exception of the redwood of California, is the largest tree on the North American continent. It has reached a height of 320 feet, and three 15 feet in diameter have been found. A single Douglas fir has scaled as much as 60,000 feet board measure. Specimens more than 700 years old have been found, but comparatively few are found more than 400 years of age.

$50,000 Bank Robbery In Detroit Today

Detroit, May 1 (AP)—Five robbers armed with revolvers and an automatic rifle, held up a branch of the Detroit Bank, oldest in the city, shortly before 11 o'clock today and escaped with a quantity of cash officials estimated at $50,000.

Four of the men conducted the holdup while a fifth sat at the wheel of a large sedan in front of the bank.

One shot was fired by the man carrying the rifle, bank employees told police. The shot splintered a marble counter and the fragments injured Mrs. Inva Hershey and Harry Taylor, Mt. Clemens, customers. Both suffered cuts on their hands.

Appearing suddenly in the crowded lobby, the men brandished their weapons and ordered customers to stand back. Two of them climbed over a high teller's cage and scooped the money into a sack. Running from the bank, they entered the car and sped away.

Children Started Fire

Yesterday the fire department responded to a telephone call for a fire on the second floor of the carpenter shop of John Duffner at 21 Clinton avenue. Children playing with matches had set fire to some shavings and rubbish on the floor. The fire was brought under control before it had a chance to spread.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

CLAUDE E. JACOB

New York, May 1 (AP)—Aside from weakness in scattered issues, the stock market was inclined to edge forward today in trading that was marked by dullness.

On relatively small turnovers Johns-Manville, J. I. Case, Allied Chemical and Columbian Carbon were up 2 to 3 points near the approach of the final hour. Others, fractions to a point improved, including Deere, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Anaconda, American Smelting, Westinghouse, General Electric and Santa Fe.

American Telephone proved a stumbling block in the continuance of yesterday's rally, losing about 3 points. Douglas Aircraft was of 1, along with Standard Oil of California. Some of the steel, utilities and rails eased, while the motors were only slightly ahead.

The late tone was steady to firm. Transfers approximated 1,500,000 shares.

RAY LE FEVRE APPOINTED TO REPLACE J. E. GUMBAIN

Ray LeFevre of High Falls has been appointed county WPA supervisor of surplus commodities to replace J. E. Gumbain of Port Jervis. Mr. LeFevre was formerly purchasing agent for the county. His headquarters will be at the County House in New Paltz.

More than three-fourths of all the steel rail produced in the United States last year was in the 100-pound section or heavier. Several companies by the American Iron and Steel Institute reveal. The production of rails with a weight per yard of 100 pounds and over exceeded 500,000 tons.

WEST SHOKAN

West Shokan, May 1.—The first real spring like day brought the ladies out in profusion to the Wednesday gathering of the West Shokan Ladies' Aid, held in the church basement. A number of visitors were present, including three quilt customers from Walden. The day's work program was spent on the quilting of two quilts put on the racks last week, one belonging to Mrs. Ernest Eckert and the other to Mrs. Claude Bell. As usual a bountiful dinner was served. The preparation and serving was done by Jennie Kerr. The ladies will assemble again next week on Wednesday, when the present tasks should be completed and two more started. At present there are three quilts orders waiting, two from Walden and the third from a lady in New Jersey. As usual all visitors will receive a cordial welcome. Those attending the Wednesday session included the Auxiliary's president and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Jones, Mrs. John Bell, Mrs. Chas. Davis, Mrs. Charles Richter, Mrs. Marshall Rodin, Mrs. James Burgher, Mrs. Edward Avery, Mrs. Bertha Bell, Mrs. Idella North, Mrs. Roy Van Demark, Mrs. Ernest Eckert, Mrs. Lauren Bell, Mrs. Rachel Kerr and daughter, Jennie. Mrs. Mary Moore, president of the Shokanville Ladies' Aid, Mrs. John Nichols. These weekly gatherings are gaining in their progress and popularity each week. The ladies are desirous of the successful season, due to the seasonal hospitable membership with Mrs. Jones as the leader. Before the luncheon Mrs. Jones, having learned that Mrs. Richter's birthday anniversary was due to fall on Thursday, gave a short pleasant talk, bidding the occasion. She welcomed Mrs. Richter as an active newcomer within the ranks of the organization.

There was a delegation of 14 companions of Mt. Horeb Chapter, R. A. M., present at an official visitation of Grand Principal Sojourner George Paendale at Wawarsing Chapter, No. 246, Ellenville, held on Monday evening, April 27. Peter R. Crawford of Olive Bridge, high priest of Mt. Horeb Chapter, and E. C. Davis, one of the chapter's lesser lights, attended the visitation. Refreshments followed and altogether the affair was enjoyable and instructive in its Masonic welfare.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carter who for some years past have resided in Mrs. Carter's home on the "Vanderbilt" estate, are about to move off the mountain having rented the former Central telephone office property at Alzochka. Mr. Carter was employed by Mr. Vanderbilt as caretaker, but due to the latter's recent death his services were no longer needed. Mrs. Carter accordingly leaves, taking from her childhood home, and the familiar scenes of happy bygone days. It was the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bogart. Mrs. Carter's father died several years ago, while her mother remained active and in good health till over 80. Mrs. Bogart died last September. Mr. Bogart was a member of the famous "Sheepskin Band" of pre-reservoir days and played the bass drum. This organization of hard-baked mountain farmers dates back into the early 1870's and at its full complement mustered a life and drum corps of a dozen or so members.

Past District Deputy President Mildred Bush announces that Olive Rebekah Lodge, No. 470 is planning to hold a cafeteria supper and card party at the Olive Bridge 1. O. O. F. Lodge hall, following the regular first Thursday of the month. The public is extended a cordial invitation to enjoy the evening's success along with the fraternity members.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius North of Shokan were entertained at supper Sunday evening at the hospitable Olive Bridge home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bush and family.

Donald Bishop is now ready to hook up in the West Shokan Heights Central Hudson line for electric lights in his home. The connecting wires were strung Tuesday under Fred Brown.

Past District Deputy President Mildred Bush and Past Noble Grand Edith Quick and Mabel Weidner of Olive Rebekah Lodge, attended the Ulster County Rebekah Past Grand meeting held April 22, at Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge at Saugerties. There was an exceptionally large attendance of approximately 80 present.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies

Mothers' Night will be observed by Kingston Chapter, No. 155, O. E. S., at its meeting this evening.

The regular weekly meeting of Charles DeWitt Council, No. 91, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the lodge rooms, 14 Henry street.

Monday evening, May 4, Roadside Lodge, No. 242, will celebrate "Veterans' Night." Members who have this year completed their 40 years in masonry as well as some of our older veterans will be honored. The speaker of the evening will be the Rev. Charles L. Palmer, who will have an interesting message. After meeting, a luncheon will be served and a social hour enjoyed. A large attendance is anticipated.

St. John's United Thank Offering

All women of St. John's Church who have the thank-offering boxes for the women's united thank-offering are asked to be sure that they are taken to the church for the Sunday service, as the offering must be sent on to New York not later than Sunday next. Mrs. George Dubeau who is in charge of the offering, will also be glad to receive offerings that any of the women of the parish may be willing to give.

New Paltz, May 1.—Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Churchill celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary last Sunday. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Churchill of Nyack, Mr. Edward F. Briggs of Mt. Kisco, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osterhoudt and daughter, Margaret, of Shandaken.

Birthday Party

Metacahonts, May 1.—A large party gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baker and also Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Baker on Saturday evening, April 26, in honor of Mrs. Tracy Baker's birthday and was a real surprise. The evening was enjoyed by all with games and dancing. After which refreshments were served. Mrs. Jacob Baker presented Mrs. Tracy Baker with a handsome trimmed birthday cake. After best wishes to Mrs. Baker for many more birthdays the guests departed.

Wedding Anniversary

Metacahonts, May 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Keider and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keider and sons, Robert and Franklin, and friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keider of Poughkeepsie and also relatives of Mrs. Floyd Keider of Kingston, motored to Millwood on Saturday evening and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Keider and daughter, the occasion being the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Keider. Most of the guests remained until Sunday. Congratulations for many more happy years of wedded life.

Surprise Party

West Shokan, May 1.—Robert Crispell, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crispell, was given a surprise birthday party at his home on the Krumville road Wednesday evening. Over 60 were present, including his schoolmates, members of the Olive Bridge Sunday school and community neighbors and friends. There was a variety of amusements in the evening program which made fun and frolic for all. Presents, too, came in a variety. Refreshments were served bountifully by Mrs. Crispell, and it was finally with regret that the party broke up with all wishing for Bob a long life and happy birthdays.

Tarvin-Seward

New Paltz, May 1.—Miss Elizabeth Seward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Clinton Seward of Huguenot street, New Paltz, and Cleo Tarvin of New York city, were married at the Governor Clinton Hotel in Kingston on Saturday afternoon, April 25. The Rev. Gerret Wullschlaeger, pastor of New Paltz Reformed Church, officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father and her sister, Mrs. Louis Countryman of New York, was her only attendant. Ben Dixon of New York was the groom's best man. The bride is a grandniece of William Henry Seward, who was secretary of state in the cabinet of Abraham Lincoln. She was graduated from Connecticut College and has been director of music in the Highland schools. Mr. Tarvin was graduated from Grinnell College and is connected with the New York Daily News.

Every one is cordially invited to attend.

2 Gonzalez Brothers Sentenced to Prison

Jose Gonzalez and his brother, Prudencio Gonzalez, alias "Red Rubio", were sentenced to hard labor at Clinton Prison this afternoon by Judge Traver in county court. Prudencio, the alleged leader, was sentenced to 15 to 25 years. When sentenced was pronounced by Judge Traver, Gonzalez collapsed and fell fainting to the floor. He was carried from the courtroom to the jail by court attendants. His brother, Jose, was sentenced to 10 to 15 years. Both were convicted of the holdup at Kerhonkson in 1931.

About The Folks

Miss Madeline Schline, 42 Shufeldt street, popular saleslady at Schwenk's bakery on Foxhall avenue, is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis at the Kingston Hospital. She is doing nicely under the care of Dr. Fred Snyder, who performed the operation. Her many friends hope to see her back soon at Schwenk's where they'll enjoy her sunny smile.

St. David, a saint of Wales who lived between 440 and 540, was an uncle of King Arthur of the Round Table. He was baptised at Porthclaw, where a spring was said to have bubbled expressly for that purpose. To this day it is revered as a holy well. Legend tells that when he preached the ground rose from beneath his feet and formed a natural pulpit. It was St. David who stamped out heresy in Wales, and when he died his body was buried in Glastonbury; but his tomb was destroyed later by Cromwell's men. It was he who persuaded Welshmen to wear leeks in their caps during a great battle under the leadership of King Cadwallader in 544, so they might distinguish their own men from their Saxon foes. The victory was theirs, and since then the leek has been the Welsh national emblem.—The Bits Magazine.

Big Lloyd's Bell Tolls

When Vessel Goes Down

In London there is a big building called Lloyd's, which is the headquarters of the men whose business is the insurance of ships.

Naturally the loss of a ship concerns these men, and whenever there is a wreck a big bell is rung and then the announcement of the ship's loss is made, notes a writer in Pearson's London Weekly.

This bell came from a vessel called the Lutina, which itself was wrecked. Originally the Lutina was captured from the French and became an English war vessel. She was lost off the coast of Holland when carrying bullion and money.

Later some of the riches were recovered by a salvage company together with the ship's bell and rudder. The bell has ever since been used for the purpose mentioned, while the rudder was made into a chair and table, which are also installed at Lloyd's.

You may wonder why the place is called Lloyd's. It is because years ago there was a coffee house not far away from the site of the present building, where merchants and others interested in shipping used to meet. This coffee house was kept by a man named Edward Lloyd.

In time Lloyd's customers formed a corporation concerned chiefly with marine insurance. It was known as Lloyd's Corporation. Presently the corporation established offices of its own, but the name of Lloyd was retained because of his association with the early days of the corporation.

Gardener's Cards Led to Use of Term Etiquette

If you will consult an old French dictionary, you will be surprised to find that the definition of etiquette is "a label, small ticket, or placard." Instead of the definition given by Webster as "the observance of the proprieties required by a good breeding; conventional decorum; ceremony." The latter definition came to supplant the original one in an interesting way, states a writer in the Washington Star.

An old Scotch gardener, who was lying out the grounds at Versailles for King Louis XVI of France, was much annoyed because the courtiers so frequently walked over his newly laid flower plots. Remonstrance was of little use, so finally he appealed to the king himself.

The king advised him to place labels and placards here and there indicating where people might walk and where they might not. Moreover, he backed up the suggestion by having a formal order that pedestrians stay at all times "within the etiquettes."

Naturally, the order was carefully observed, and the phrase, "etiquette," came to mean "a byword, some code to mean 'keeping within the proprieties'" in every sense.

Belongs to Costa Rica

Costa Island, famed as a treasure trove of pirate gold and objective of many a pill-and-sword expedition, belongs to Costa Rica. The island, a day's sail in the Pacific, is only 13 miles in circumference, has an altitude of 2,700 feet, lies due west of northern Colombia and approximately the same south and a little west of Costa Rica.

Peated shades in a variety of tones qualities characterize the big family of poppies. If the gardener seeks color no race of flowers can outdo them. Their dazzling brilliance has inspired many a poet, and their culture and profuse bloom make them favorites wherever flowers are grown.

Largest of Spitz Family

The Samoyed is the largest member of the Spitz family. Originated with, and got name from, tribe of Siberian hunters and fishermen who still use them to pull sleds and herd deer. Dense coats often shorn (like that of sheep) and used for weaving clothing. Usually pure white, but may be black or dark colored. The Samoyed is extremely hardy, very affectionate, intelligent, active.

There Is No Wind When the Wind Is Not Blowing

Wind is air naturally and horizontally in motion with a certain degree of velocity. Thus the old question, "Where is the wind when it is not blowing?" is pointless, because there is no wind which is not blowing, says a writer in the Indianapolis News. Pure air is composed of colorless gases and is transparent. Therefore, the wind could not be seen if the air were pure, but the atmosphere always contains minute particles of substances other than the constituent gases and one can see the wind readily enough with the aid of a bright sheet of metal two feet in length with one edge straight, such as a polished hand saw of large size. A windy day when the air is dry should be selected for the experiment to get the best results. The sheet of metal or saw should be held at right angles to the wind; that is, if the wind is blowing from the south, the blade should point east and west with the straight edge up and tilted away from the direction of the wind at an angle of about 35 to 40 degrees, permitting the air current to strike the smooth surface and glance upward. If one then sights carefully along the blade at some sharply defined object in the vicinity, one will see the air flowing over the edge in graceful curves like water going over a dam. The speed, but not the volume, of the overwind increases with the strength of the wind. The phenomenon is similar to the waves of air seen near a hot stove or over the ground, roofs and other surfaces on hot, clear, summer days.

England, Spain Followed

Indian's Style of Pipes

While the English adopted the pipe of the North American Indian, the Spaniards followed the practice of the Caribbean Islanders and South American Indians. This was to roll the tobacco in leaves of cabbage or corn to form a cigar, according to a writer in the Chicago Tribune. Cigar was the Spanish word meaning to roll. Cigar came to signify a roll of tobacco leaves. Continental Europe, except Spain, preferred snuff, as did the Scots.

The cigar developed in Spain. Paper served as the enveloping material, probably because of the lack of suitable leaves.

The first pipes were makeshifts—sometimes merely a reed or straw inserted in a walnut shell. Then followed small pipes of iron, silver, brass, or carved wood, yielding only a few puffs to each filling. The clay pipe early became popular in England and held favor till about 80 years ago, when the briar came into use.

Briar pipes are not made of briar. The name is a corruption of the bruyere or white heath shrub, a native of southern Europe and Algeria.

Longest Coast Line

Florida is considered to have the longest coast line of any state. According to the United States Coast and Geodetic survey this coast line, exclusive of islands, is 1,197 miles, including 309 on the Atlantic and 708 on the Gulf of Mexico. California is listed as second with 918 miles of coast. Lake shore line is not regarded as coast line by this government department. If it were, Michigan would have the second longest coast line, according to this same authority. According to other authorities, Michigan has 905 miles of coast line in the Upper Peninsula and 810 in the Lower Peninsula, a total of 1,715 miles. The coast of Maine is so indented that if a small unit of measurement were employed that state would have a coast line of about 3,000 miles. As measured by the methods of the Coast and Geodetic survey, it has only 228 miles.

Strive to Excel

Strive always to excel; try always to keep that attitude of mind which abhors defeat; for it is a proved fact that man's nature is so adaptable that he can accustom himself to mediocrity and numb his sense of failure. But the converse of this is also true, making it possible for one to train oneself to be satisfied with nothing less than the best, and with the failure idea made so repellent that all one's faculties will be kept constantly on the alert to discover opportunity, possess it, improve it and through it carve out a significant and satisfying destiny. A study of the careers of successful men will reveal this attitude as one of the underlying factors in their progress. It is an unending source of inspiration and the fountain from which flows that matchless determination so pronounced in those who lead.

Belongs to Costa Rica

Costa Island, famed as a treasure trove of pirate gold and objective of many a pill-and-sword expedition, belongs to Costa Rica. The island, a day's sail in the Pacific, is only 13 miles in circumference, has an altitude of 2,700 feet, lies due west of northern Colombia and approximately the same south and a little west of Costa Rica.

Peated shades in a variety of tones qualities characterize the big family of poppies. If the gardener seeks color no race of flowers can outdo them. Their dazzling brilliance has inspired many a poet, and their culture and profuse bloom make them favorites wherever flowers are grown.

Local Death Record

Ellenville, May 1.—Myron Parker, 79, died suddenly of apoplexy on Saturday, April 25, at Jewett, Greene county. He was a son of Henry and Myrtilla Parker and was born at Shandaken on September 25, 1856. For many years he was associated with Bailey & Deyo of this village and was a member of the Methodist Church. Funeral services were held at the home of his son, Emory Parker of this village, April 26, with the Rev. A. M. Wilkins officiating. Burial was in the Ellenville cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. Lawrence C. Camp, who died suddenly in New York on Wednesday, are resting at the parlors of A. Carr & Son, where friends may call this afternoon and evening. Funeral services will be held at St. Ann's Church, Sawkill, Saturday at 10 a. m., where a Mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment will be in the cemetery at Sawkill. Mrs. Camp was for many years a resident of Kingston and Sawkill and leaves many friends in this section who will grieve at news of her death.

The funeral of Mrs. Katherine Melbert, widow of Jacob H. Melbert, was held at her home, 46 Lincoln street, Monday afternoon. The services were largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. There were many beautiful floral offerings which attested to the high esteem in which she was held. The Rev. W. H. Pretsch, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, of which Mrs. Melbert was a member, officiated. Bearer were Henry Melbert, Christian Melbert, Alfred Melbert, Edward Otto, Charles Gruenewald, and Phillip Gunther. Burial was in Montpelier cemetery.

Ellenville, May 1.—Miles A. Deyo, a well known local resident died on Monday at his home on Center street at the age of 73 years. He was born in Ellenville on July 25, 1862, the son of Peter Deyo and his wife, Rachel Freer. He married Mary Cressell of Binghamton, who died about five years ago. Surviving are two daughters, Miss Anita Deyo of Ellenville and Mrs. Lulu Young of Whitehall, N. Y., and one son, Paul Deyo of White Plains; five nieces and one nephew. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. on Thursday at Wood & Lamberts' Funeral Chapel, conducted by the Rev. Perry Van Dyke. Interment was in Fantinekill cemetery.

Ellenville, May 1.—Mrs. Lillia DeWitt, former resident of Napanoch and Middletown, died April 22, at her home in Port Jervis after an illness of several months. She was born in Ferndale on January 16, 1856, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kortright. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Seymour Humiston of Port Jervis, Mrs. Robert Le Clercq of Middletown, Mrs. Lillian Boothroyd and one son Frank DeWitt of Napanoch, also a sister, Mrs. Catherine Wood of Ferndale, a brother, Edward Kortright of Richmond Hill, L. I., and several grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the home on Sunday with burial in Fantinekill cemetery.

The funeral of David Ebel, Sr., who died at the Kingston Hospital at an early hour Monday morning was held at his residence, 36 Pine Grove avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. W. H. Pretsch, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, of which he was a member, officiated.

The officers and members of the Society of Children of Mary of St. Peter's Church are requested to meet at the home of Miss I. Winifred Mooney, 97 West Chester street, this evening at 7 o'clock to recite the rosary for the repose of her soul.

SCHUMAN—in this city, April 29, 1936, Marie Kennedy, wife of Harry Schuman.

Funeral from the residence of her brother, Harry Kennedy, No. 39 Downs street, on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. (D. S. T.). Relatives and friends are invited. Interment in Wiltwyck Cemetery.

Boy Scouts Testify At Volckmann Trial

Catskill, N. Y., May 1 (AP).—Three Boy Scouts took the witness stand today and testified that Alfred Volckmann, on trial for the murder of nine-year-old Helen Glenn, led them and state police on a "wild goose chase" in a search for the girl after she was reported missing.

The witnesses were Arthur Phenon, 15, Lucius Ales, 16, and Philip Turner Ellis, 16, all members of a Greenville scout troop.

Volckmann, they testified, drove them and Ernest Glenn, 12-year-old brother of the slain girl, "everywhere but where the body was found."

Fight Waging Over Duffy's Appointment To Succeed Shultis

With the announcement of the appointment by the Albany WPA of John J. Duffy of Rosendale, to replace Albert H. Shultis of 15 Lan Court, this city, in charge of the government surplus commodities distribution in Kingston, a fight has developed when Mayor C. J. Heiselman, it is said, made it plain that he would refuse to recognize Duffy's appointment, as he did not believe it the best policy to bring an out-of-town man into the city to replace a local resident, who has been handling the position efficiently for several years past.

Mayor Heiselman when seen today and asked for a statement said that he had no statement to make at this time.

Mr. Shultis when seen today was busy taking an inventory of the surplus clothing materials on hand. He said he did not care to make any statement for publication. Representatives of the Albany WPA in Kingston at the ERB headquarters aiding in checking the raw materials on hand.

Mr. Duffy called at the ERB office this morning and was there about two hours. An effort to get in touch with him for a statement proved unavailing for he was not at the WPA office and no one knew where he was.

Appellate, Cleighton Appeal

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP).—Pleas for the lives of Everett R. Applegate, former Nassau county American Legion officer, and Mrs. Mary Frances Creighton, convicted jointly of the poison murder of Applegate's wife, Ada, rested before the court of appeals today. In oral arguments before the state's highest court yesterday, attorneys for the pair asked reversal of their first degree murder conviction. The defendants are awaiting execution of the death sentence in Sing Sing prison. Mrs. Creighton and Applegate were convicted as the result of the death of Mrs. Applegate last September 27 in the home at Baldwin, L. I., which both families occupied. The state charged the defendants fed poison to Mrs. Applegate.

Kingston High School Baseball, Track and Golf Teams Play Saturday

The baseball, track and golf teams of Kingston High School, after strenuous workouts, will swing into action Saturday for the opening of their season's schedules.

Baseball at Port Jervis.
The Maroon and White nine, after scoring impressive wins over the Alumni and Faculty, are in good shape for their opener against Port Jervis, which is a DUSO League tilt. Middletown travels to Ellenville tomorrow to play the other scheduled league game for the day.

Coach Ken Anderson will choose either, Charlie Bock or Lou Glenn for the mound assignment while Tommy Malnes will be on the receiving end. The regular infielders including Captain Ralph DeCicco, Chapple Van Derzee, Tony Rhinehardt and either Charlie Bock or Lou Glenn will be in the starting lineup. Elmer Hopper, Eddie Bock and Ad Beckhoven will patrol the outer gardens.

The Tri-city representatives have Bill Nied, Ken March and Jack Lord to choose from to do the hurling while Howlett will catch. Port has already played several games holding the advantage over Kingston in this respect.

Track Squad at Poughkeepsie.
Lacking the proper facilities and equipment to sponsor a track meet at home it is therefore necessary for the local track squad to hold all meets away from home. Four track meets have been arranged, the first being with Poughkeepsie tomorrow; May 9 at Middletown; May 16 at Cornwall (N. Y. M. A.) and May 23 the DUSO track meet at Middletown.

Coach G. Warren Kias will have charge of the squad tomorrow as Coach Tom Kinsella has some very important business to attend in New York city. As a result of track trials held recently the following contestants were selected to compete in the meet tomorrow:

100 yard dash—Mike Weiner, Bill Von Essen, Mac Tiano and Johnny Flanagan; 220 yard dash—Mike Weiner, Bill Von Essen and Mac Tiano; 440—Capt. Harry Wilber, Don Murphy, Emil Talcott and Maxin; 880—Joe Hart, Walt Helene, Johnny Leonard and Al Wood; Mile—John Campbell, Jesse Shultz and Bill Hoehling; 880 relay—Mac Tiano, Harry Wilber, Bill Von Essen and Mike Schoonmaker. Shot put—Jack Schoonmaker, "Heavy" Bowsen, Bill Kraft and Johnny Spada; Broad jump—Bill Von Essen, Mike Weiner and Johnny Flanagan; High jump—Mike Weiner, Bill Bushnell and Holt Winfield; Pole vault—Harry Kachigan and Holt Winfield.

Newburgh Golfers Here.
Tomorrow morning a quartet of Newburgh golfers will be on hand to oppose the first four ranking golfers of K. H. S. Captain Frank Heitman and Barney Murray, the regular number one and two men, are out of this week's competition, due to ineligibility. With their top men missing, Kingston is given a slim chance in topping Newburgh.

Fred Holcomb, one of last year's veterans, has been moved up to fill the number one position. Bertie Debrosky, a newcomer to the squad, is a steady shooter and will fill the second position. Bob Cole and Leo Wisneski will occupy the other two positions.

Coach Watts Bailey is carrying a squad of nine for the coming season from which to pick his golfers for each match. As the result of a series of eliminations in the form of match play the following have been selected, ranking in the following order: (1) Captain Frank Heitman, (2) Barney Murray, (3) Bob Cole, (4) Leo Wisneski, (5) Bertie Debrosky, (6) Mike Wiel, (7) Mill Cole, (8) Junie Wiel and (9) Fred Holcomb, manager.

Matches for the coming season have been scheduled on the home and home basis, as follows:

May 2—Newburgh here.
May 9—Poughkeepsie here.
May 16—Catskill here.
May 20—Poughkeepsie there.
May 23—Catskill, there.
June 6—Newburgh there.
June 13—Hudson River Open Meet at Newburgh, open to any high school golfer.

Official Schedule For DUSO Baseball

The official DUSO League baseball schedule as issued by A. H. Naylor, president of the league, is as follows:

May 2—Kingston at Port Jervis.
May 2—Middletown at Ellenville.
May 8—Port Jervis at Newburgh.
May 9—Ellenville at Kingston.
May 15—Newburgh at Liberty.
May 16—Liberty at Ellenville.
May 16—Middletown at Kingston.
May 22—Newburgh at Middletown.
May 29—Kingston at Newburgh.
May 30—Liberty at Port Jervis.
June 5—Ellenville at Newburgh.
June 6—Kingston at Liberty.
June 6—Port Jervis at Middletown.
June 13—Middletown at Liberty.
June 13—Ellenville at Port Jervis.
*Played at 5 o'clock.

Spring days are busy days for most people, but when you know that they can at least enjoy their leisure time by watching the baseball games, it is a different story. The games are held on a regular basis and the excitement is such that it is well worth the effort. The games are held on a regular basis and the excitement is such that it is well worth the effort.

One More Target And Joe Would Have Won the $5 Prize

Joe Hyatt was the star performer at the Ulster Co. Gun Club Thursday afternoon.

He went straight on skeet targets up to the second pair of doubles, when he missed the incoming and then broke all the rest, which makes him the fourth club member to break 24.

The target he missed would have been worth $5 to him if it had been broken.

One of the directors of the club has posted an additional prize of $10 to go to the paid-up member of the Ulster Co. Gun Club who first breaks two 25's.

A few of the members will be at the club grounds Saturday cleaning up in preparation for the first registered shoot, which will be held May 10.

The traps will be open Saturday for any shooters who want practice on 16-yard targets or skeet.

Hedrick's Brews Play First Game on Sunday

Sunday afternoon at Hasbrouck Park the Hedrick's Brews open their season with a pre-City League game against the Berardi A. C. last year's league champions.

The Hedricks, formerly the North Rondout Social Club, who will take that club's place in the City League, have some of the best players in the city on their roster of 15 men. The list includes Jim Turk, Joe Gardiner, John Tomaszewski, Bing Van Etten, Phil Komosa, Ed Murphy, Ed Scherer, Milly Berardi, John Quest, Andy Dykes, Lou Nardi, Bobby Culum, Joe Brown, Leo Komosa, Charles Buck. The latter will not be seen in the first half game as he is playing with the high school.

Phil Komosa will probably do the pitching for Hedrick's Sunday, with Joe Gardiner, catching. For the Berardi A. C. Culum pitching and Zedany catching.

The Hedricks will appear in their new gray uniforms with blue trimmings and the Berardi's with maroon uniforms, with white caps and white socks.

The diamond at Hasbrouck Park is being put into condition and everything is expected to be in shape by Sunday.

Wilbur Dodgers Play Kingston Royals May 3

The Wilbur Dodgers will try to get back on to the winning road Sunday, when they tackle a downtown Kingston team, the Royals. The game will be played on the Wilbur diamond and is scheduled to start at 2:30 sharp.

The Dodgers left-hander, Joe Spitzer, will be in the box, with Hank Wenzel behind the bat. Manager Jim Freilich of the Royals will have Jim Bradford doing the pitching, with Bill Atkins on the receiving end.

Manager Mel Lynch of the Dodgers says that his team played loose ball last Sunday, when they dropped a 11-1 game to the Kingston Trojans and lost their fighting pep, but he expects to have them back in shape again so that when they go on the road they will prove dangerous contenders and come home with many victories to their credit.

WRESTLING LAST NIGHT.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, 250, Glendale, Calif., threw Sun Jennings, 240, Oklahoma, 14:14.

Washington—Gus Sonnenborg, 202, Boston, threw Abie Coleman, 205, New York.

GOLF AND TENNIS REPLACE TRACK AT ST. LAWRENCE

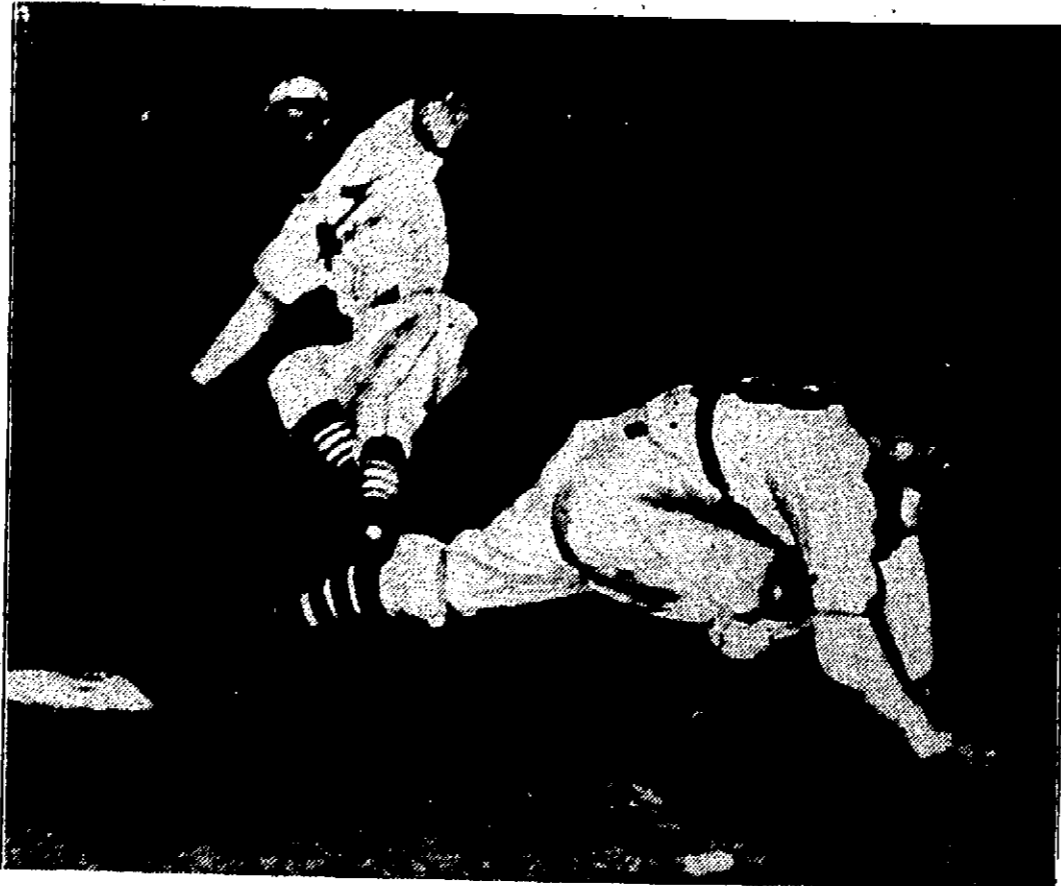

Canton, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Track, a sport instituted at St. Lawrence University in the '70s, passed from the athletic picture here today.

Roy B. Clogston, director of athletics, announced that track had been abandoned "due to lack of enthusiasm among students." He said golf and tennis would be stressed instead.

U. S. Treasury Considers Fund

The United States treasury considers a fund was opened with a contribution of $5 in 1911. Money received for this fund is not carried on the books of the Treasury department as such, but is listed as miscellaneous receipts. The amounts sent in range from 2 cents from a person who mailed, to several thousand dollars from persons who donated goods into the United States without paying import duty. No special use is made of the money. It simply goes into the general funds of the department.

CARDS DEFEAT GIANTS IN 17-INNING BATTLE

Lyn King is shown sliding home with the winning run as the Cardinals defeated the Giants 2-1 after a 17-inning pitching duel in the longest game of the season at St. Louis. Gus Mancuso, Giant catcher, reached valiantly for the ball but couldn't get back in time. Lefty Parmelee, twirling for the Cardinals, turned back his former teammates in masterful fashion, allowing the Giants only six hits. (Associated Press Photo)

Louisville Taxed to Care for Visitors

By ORLO ROBERTSON
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Louisville, Ky., May 1 (AP)—Their last workouts a matter of history, 16 three-year-olds, one of them a filly, rested in their stalls today as the Derby fever tightened its grip on this thoroughbred capital in preparation for the 62nd running of the turf classic at Churchill Downs tomorrow.

From the highway's and by-ways came the racing clans in the greatest throng since the post-war depression. So great was the influx of horsemen and horse followers, many high in social and political life of the nation, that the hospitality of the city was taxed to the utmost.

Close to 60,000 are expected to pack the quarter-mile long grandstand and overflow into the flower-covered infield tomorrow. The congestion will be so great, however, that many will get only a fleeting glimpse of the horses as they match strides over one and one-quarter miles for the purse of $40,000.

The horses themselves played little part in the pre-race hysteria. They went through short workouts this morning and then retired to their closely guarded stalls to wait the call to "boots and saddles" tomorrow at about 4:30 p. m. (CST). The horses for the first event of the eight-race program will be called to the post at 12:30. The Derby is scheduled sixth on the card.

Hot tips were to be had on every corner without asking. But after it had all simmered down, Joseph Early Widener's Brevity remained the horse to beat.

The track was sloppy for yesterday's races. The weather man predicts local showers tomorrow but holds out a 50-50 chance that the sun will shine at Derby time.

If Brevity is beaten, the consensus is that it will be by one of three horses—William Woodward's Grassville, Morion L. Schwartz's Gold Venture or the Bomar Stable's Grand Slam.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago—Harry Thomas, 200, Eagle Bend, Minn., stopped Vincent Parrille, 205, South America (3).

Boise, Idaho—Andre Lenglet, 222, France, knocked out Bill Godfrey, 203, Lipperville, Pa. (3).

Kentucky Derby Facts and Figures

Louisville, Ky., May 1 (AP)—Facts and figures about the 62nd Kentucky Derby, which will be run at Churchill Downs tomorrow:

Probable field—15 colts and one filly.

Favorite—J. E. Widener's Brevity, 7-5.

Second choice—James Fitzsimmons entry of Grassville, Teufel and Merry Pete, 4-1.

Probable crowd—60,000.

Distance—One and one-quarter miles.

Purse—$40,000 added: Weather—Possible local showers. Time—4:30 p. m. (CST).

Broadcast—Nation-wide hook-up (CBS).

CONTINUES FIGHT FOR 'PARI-MUTUEL BETTING'

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Democratic Senate Leader John J. Dunnigan, said today he would confer this week-end with prominent race track figures in an effort to obtain approval of his proposed constitutional amendment to permit pari-mutuel betting in New York state.

As a result of the conference, Dunnigan said, he hopes to reach some sort of compromise which will settle the feud between advocates of pari-mutuel and oral betting.

The most likely compromise, it was said, would be a measure combining his approval with one to license bookmakers and thus permit their continued operation along with the pari-mutuel machines.

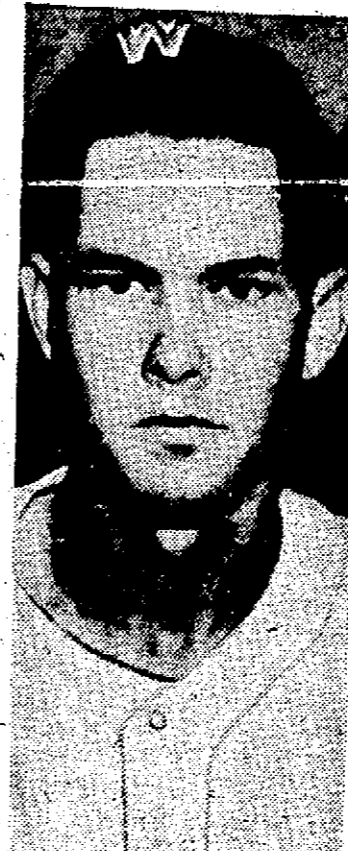

JOE LOUIS SETTLES DOWN TO TRAINING

Lafayetteville, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—With his major commissary problem satisfactorily disposed of, Joe Louis settled down today to the grind of training for his heavyweight bout with Max Schmeling June 18 in New York.

"Where's the grub?" was the first question asked by the Brown Bomber on arrival at his headquarters here.

Joe, after motoring down from Buffalo, was hungry. After eating he inspected his camp.

Making Good

CATSKILL APPLE KNOCKERS PLAY COMFORTERS TONIGHT

Art Kaplan's Old Catskill Apple Knockers softball team will open their season tonight at the Kingston Fair Grounds at 6:30 when they cross bats with the Comforter representatives. The Apple Knockers are considered as having one of the strongest softball line-ups in the city. They are presenting several new players this season.

Manager Kaplan has not announced his battery for tonight's encounter. Either Gordon Craig or Ken Williams will pitch for the churchmen with Kennedy or Eighmey doing the receiving.

Tagging Major League Bases

By ANDY CLARKE
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Mickey Cochrane, battling manager of the Detroit Tigers, awoke today with reason for sour reflection on the latest twist of fate.

The plucky manager who led his team to baseball's highest glory last year finds now that the laureled way of yesterday can turn quickly into the thorny low road of today. This season has been one bad streak after another as far as the Tigers are concerned and they take the field today with neither Cochrane nor his ace thumper, Hank Greenberg, active.

Cochrane was hit by a foul in the losing game against the Senators yesterday and his instep was so bruised that he was expected to be out of the lineup for three days. He will join Greenberg on the sidelines, the latter suffering from a fractured wrist that is expected to keep him out of action for six weeks.

This is the third time in the young season that Cochrane has been forced out of action by physical disability. An injured thumb and eye trouble forced him to forego action on two other occasions.

A ninth inning single that Jake Powell slapped down the third baseline scored Buddy Myer with the run that gave the Senators an 8-7 victory.

The day's play showed a wide diversification in pitching effectiveness.

Monte Pearson, obtained from the Indians for Johnny Allen in a winter trade, somewhat justified the judgment of the Yankees' brains department when he pitched an 8-1 victory over the Indians with Allen opposing him.

The Athletics belted over the Browns 12-8 with 25 hits ringing off the hickory while the Red Sox continued their heavy clouting with a 16-4 conquest of the White Sox in which 31 strikes were made. The Browns used five pitchers in an attempt to stem the Mackmen's attack. The Red Sox got a dozen passes along with 18 hits.

Paul, the younger of the Dean brothers, accounted for his first victory of the season 3-2, although the Giants outlit the Cardinals 11-5. Joe Moore of the Giants had a big day at bat with four safeties, one a two-bagger.

Tex Carleton of the Cubs shaded Dutch Brandt of the Dodgers in the closest mound duel of the day, an engagement that went 11 innings before the Cubs won 3-2. Carleton allowed seven hits and Brandt four more as both twirlers went the distance. Billy Herman, the doubles king of last year, got two more to raise his season's total to 11.

Danny MacFayden pitched five hit ball as the Bees downed the Reds 3-1. The bespectacled hurler allowed only one walk as he set back the team that has raised havoc with the more powerful clubs of the league. Bill Brubaker, subbing at third base, wallowed a homer to give the Pirates a 4-3 victory over the Phillies. The hit came in the sixth inning with two on.

Black Art Man Known as "Dukun" to East Indians

That almost good American word, "hoodoo," is of African origin. From it "voodoo" was evolved, and the voodooism of Africa and the West Indies is closely related to the "black magic" of the East Indies and Malaya. At least, the prime object of both is to "put a hoodoo" on an enemy or a rival.

In Java and other East Indies the practitioner of the black art is known as a dukun. A dukun, man or woman, is believed by natives to combine all the eerie and weird powers of a witch, sorcerer, divinationist, and voodoo priest.

When the death of an enemy or any person against whom a grudge is held is desired, the aid of a dukun is sought. After payment of a fee, dependent upon the wealth and position of the client, the dukun makes a small image of the victim in clay.

Then, with prayers and incantations, much ceremony and hocus-pecum, he pierces the image in the region of the heart or stomach with a needle or sharp instrument, buries the clay image in some carefully chosen spot, and within a week or a month the object of his professional activities dies of some affliction of the organs presumed to be pierced.

An item in the church accounts for Fyfford, Surrey, reads: "1799, paid for 60 death sparrows, 10s. 6d." The church registers begin in 1600, and the churchwardens' accounts contain some curious entries, including the following: "1702, pure shoes for Mary Fyfford, 4s. 6d.; 1703, jerking and carrying Fyfford Church ledger, 4s. 6d.; one hedgehog, 4d.; 1813, paid for a sparrow, 1d.; 1814, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1815, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1816, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1817, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1818, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1819, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1820, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1821, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1822, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1823, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1824, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1825, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1826, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1827, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1828, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1829, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1830, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1831, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1832, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1833, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1834, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1835, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1836, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1837, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1838, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1839, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1840, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1841, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1842, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1843, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1844, a round of sparrow, 1d.; 1845, a round of

Heart-Breaker Future
Seen for Quintuplets

Hamilton, N. Y., May 1 (AP).—Dr. Donald A. Laird, director of the Colgate University psychological laboratory, expressed belief today the Dionne quintuplets stand a good chance of growing into heart-breakers—and old maids.

Their segregation from other children while very young may make them man-haters, he said.

"Those guardians are going to have their hands full as the 'quins' grow up," the psychologist said. "The small fortune which each will have accumulated will, of course, be a good marriage lure to selfish, fortune-hunting young men."

"But the girls are likely to be heart-breakers in their own right. They were born prematurely, and it is a general rule for those born while very small to be better looking—the typical doll-faced persons."

"For that matter, small babies are usually better looking than large babies, which is one reason why women are better looking than men. Men get started in life with the handicap of being larger babies and, in a way of speaking, having their faces stepped on at birth."

"The quins are likely to be particularly good-looking young women who will leave a lot of broken hearts in their trail."

"The marriage chances of the quins, however, may already be diminishing since they are surrounded too completely by women. Unless men come into girls' lives while they are still very young, they are predisposed to become old maids, even man-haters."

"It would be a good plan to disengage a few of the little boys around Châleider and let the quins learn to play with them. If they don't start playing with boys soon, and if they do not go to school with boys, the chances of their being honest-to-goodness heart-breakers are increased enormously."

Mayor of Buffalo
Pleads Not Guilty

George J. Zimmerman

Buffalo, N. Y., May 1 (AP).—Mayor George J. Zimmerman pleaded not guilty to charges of making pre-election promises of jobs in return for support in the 1933 election when arraigned today before Supreme Court Justice Alonzo C. Hinkley.

The mayor was arraigned on three indictments. He was elected Democratic mayor in 1933 over his Republican opponent, Philip C. Schaefer.

Mayor Zimmerman surrendered to District Attorney Walter C. Newcomb shortly after the indictments were returned. If convicted he faces removal from office and a maximum prison sentence of five years. Bail was set at $5,000.

The indictments came as a result of a meeting on October 10, 1933, at which Zimmerman, then a candidate, is alleged to have promised former Mayor Frank X. Schwab and four of his supporters municipal jobs in return for their support in the election.

Schwab withdrew from the race shortly afterwards. His presence in the race had been regarded as a strong factor in opposition to the present mayor's election.

The action of the grand jury marked the first time in the city's history that its chief executive had been indicted.

The indictments were returned in supreme court as Mayor Zimmerman was under orders from Governor Lehman to file an answer to charges demanding his removal from office.

Endurance Drive
To End Saturday

Don Morse, endurance driver who hopes to finish 100 hours of steady traveling over the streets of Kingston and vicinity, Saturday, without any sleep, was exceptionally weary this morning when he talked with a reporter. The scribe met him on Main street, near the Hardenbergh furniture store, where he is to sleep Saturday afternoon.

"Every time I drive by that store window," he said, "I look in at those beds Mr. Hardenbergh has on display and wish Saturday would come in a flash."

Morse, who looked bad enough yesterday, was even worse today, his board having grown longer, and the condition of eyes more bloodshot. His clothing was wrinkled and soiled, and his hands were dirty, having gone unwashed since he started his trip Tuesday noon. The grind is to end Saturday at 4 p. m. in front of the Broadway Theatre. From then until 6 p. m. Morse will sleep in the Hardenbergh window. Sunday night, not Saturday as stated previously, he'll be at the Clinton Ford Pavilion, and Monday night at the Broadway Theatre.

Other crash comes, we shall be infinitely worse off.
But another school of economists, notably represented by Stuart Chase and Robert Jackson, says that this new tax bill will not prevent necessary expansion, but will prevent the system by which dividends are held in reserves so that individuals controlling the corporation can cut down on their income taxes. As far as cushioning depression is concerned, a corporation with excessively large reserves can maintain prices at a high level, restrict production, postpone reorganization and actually retard recovery. And after all, let's not look ahead to the next depression until this "cushioned" one is really over.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM MCCracken.

Tendered Buffet Luncheon by Men in His Platoon Thursday Night at Central Fire Station—New Firemen Reported for Duty This Morning.

Firemen Irving Egnor, who served his last trick of duty as an active fireman last evening was tendered a buffet lunch by the fellow members of his platoon at the Central Fire Station. The lunch was served at 10 o'clock, and was attended by other firemen on that shift, together with several of Fireman Egnor's friends.

Following the lunch an entertainment was staged by the singing cowboy, Bill Crosby, Bill Brown and Marshall Miller, superintendent of the fire alarm system.

The farewell party broke up at a late hour, all wishing Fireman Egnor many happy years of retirement.

Fireman John L. Strubel and John Heppner also retired on a pension when they served their last trick of duty yesterday.

This morning Walter F. Madajewski, Arthur F. Fitzgerald and Howard Myer, recently appointed members of the fire department, reported at the Central Fire Station for duty. Fire Chief Murphy assigned Fireman Myer to Platoon No. 2, on duty days this week, and

Firemen Madajewski and Fitzgerald

Relief Gardens Will
Number 400 in City

At the ERB office on Broadway this morning it was stated that seed potatoes for relief clients who were planning to have a municipal or home garden had been received and could be obtained at the municipal garden tract on Fair street extension. It is expected that there will be 150 municipal gardens and 250 home gardens, a total of 400 gardens in the city this year.

Due in part to the depression but also due in part to the inroads of competitors, the railroad problem remains as one of the most acute in the nation.

Pauper to Riches,
Told of Townsend

Los Angeles, May 1 (AP)—The Townsend old age pension investigation here was called off today for a congressional sub-committee's immediate return to Washington to question Dr. Francis E. Townsend.

"I want to get back in time to cross-examine Dr. Townsend when he takes the witness stand before the committee as a whole on May 5," said Rep. Joseph Gavan, (D-N. Y.).

In two days of public hearings the investigators brought out this testimony:

In one month, December, 1935, Townsend followers contributed $25,532.60 in the Southern California area.

Dr. Townsend planned to use the pension movement merely as a springboard for building up a profitable national magazine.

Dr. Townsend was extremely impoverished, unable to pay gas and light bills at the time he started his movement for pensioning aged persons. Later, rich returns poured in.

That the elderly physician received huge financial support from the followers, and within a few months began a lobby for pushing pension legislation through Congress.

Edward E. Gordon, Southern California manager for Dr. Townsend, testified that since July, 1935, he personally received $15,253.69.

Josephine Antoine
Here on Monday

A wonderful opportunity is being given the people of Kingston and vicinity to hear Josephine Antoine sing at the concert she is to give at St. James M. E. Church next Monday evening. When one considers the cost of the trip to New York and the expense of metropolitan opera tickets, the possibility of hearing her here in Kingston for the price of the tickets being sold here offers an even greater opportunity within the reach of music lovers of the city and vicinity. The only question is will the full seating capacity of St. James M. E. Church hold all who will want to hear Miss Antoine.

Tickets may be purchased at E. Winter's Sons' music store on Wall street, at Ray Everett's bakery and grocery store on Wall street, of the members of St. James M. E. choir and of Mr. Hawksley, director of the choir. Moreover tickets will be delivered if people so desire.

While the house will not be oversold, it will be to the advantage of all interested in hearing Josephine Antoine to secure their tickets early.

Pronunciation, the one sure sign that rates you, in spite of smart clothes, good looks or a desire to be sociable!

Arken is fading out this bitter truth, as she stumbles along, trying to be affable to Phyllis and her mother, but sounding more and more like a cheap little nobody.

"Aren't these EXKWIZIT BRUZZER?" she exclaims, as they stop near a display of boxers in a department store. "And don't these QUINTOOPLES dolls look MISCHIEVY?"

Then as she notices the social atmosphere is a bit chilly, she suggests, "Let's go to the tearoom for a caramel sundae with TEDDIES!"

Afreen, your pronunciation is giving Phyllis and her mother the shivers, and they're not fools, either. Not much excuse there, dear, for mispronouncing EXKWIZIT, BRUZZER, and TEDDIES.

QUINTOOPLES, MISCHIEVYUS, CARE-AMEL, and TEDDIES.

Lack of education is really no excuse. Check up on a few words every day, weed out those you say wrong, practice on the right pronunciation. In a year's time you can root out hundreds of errors, speak like a person of refinement, not like the careless crowd. It's only natural for strangers to take you for what-ever your tongue says you are!

Our 40-page booklet, WORDS MOST OFTEN MISPRONOUNCED, sets you right, clearly and simply, on errors we may all make. A short-cut to good speech—and to that "super" feeling.

HOLLYWOOD
SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Thirty stock players at the Paramount picture factory are being given a "course" of lectures on various phases of the business with studio notables holding high the torch. Between lectures — and dramatic classes, of course — the newcomers are acquainted with other intricacies.

The first "lecturer" was Professor-for-the-day Cecil B. DeMille. He talked about the cheapsness of mere beauty in Hollywood, and the need for "individuality and character" and "depth." He also discussed diction, which is a subject the professor constantly views with alarm.

Then he related this anecdote about the once great Gloria Swanson:

"I picked her," said DeMille, "for the way she leaned against a doorpost in a one-reel Mack Bennett comedy. She was leaning there looking sorry about somebody who had just fallen downstairs, bumping all the way down. I got from Swanson in that moment, probably six feet of film, the thing that made her the world's greatest star for a long time — and that was not her beauty, but her genuineness and appeal."

A Real Tribute

Thornton Wilder, the novelist, wrote a play while he was still at Yale and it was produced by a laboratory theater in New York.

Coming over to see it under way, Wilder turned to the director and said, in earnest admiration: "It isn't my play—it's yours now, and you can have it."

And that is one of the nicest tributes ever paid to Richard Boleslawski, who makes movies for a living now.

W. C. Fields gave an extra 30 minutes' sleep in the morning because of that trailer cabin of his. When the chauffeur passes a certain point en route to the studio, he arouses the catnapper, who dresses during the rest of the trip.

Mae West Type

Louise Barrmore has been getting things at a moderate pace. It's for his disguise as an old woman in "The Witch of Timbuktu." He wears three different gowns, plus a wig that is loaded by a hairdresser. "I wanted to be the Mae West type," he sighed, "but I'm afraid they think old ladies can't wear her things."

Maria Jeritza (now Mrs. Winfield Sheehan) tells friends she has no movie pretensions whatever. "The money doesn't interest her, and neither does movieacting."

Will Seek New Trial

Washington, May 1 (AP)—Colonel Joseph I. McMullen, convicted of improperly accepting a fee from a private corporation while on active duty in the War Department, planned today to seek a new trial. A District of Columbia Supreme Court jury returned the verdict late last night after four hours' deliberation. Justice O'Donoghue deferred sentence pending the motion for a new trial.

Bonus Machinery Assures Bonus Speed

Washington, May 1 (AP)—Postal officials said today that machinery has been set up to assure quick payment of bonus money to veterans who desire to cash their "baby bonds" after they are distributed in June.

Following is the procedure outlined by officials:

A veteran applies for payment of his bonds certificate in $50 bonds by sending an application blank with his fingerprints and other data to the nearest office of the Veterans' Administration.

After it has been checked over the application, the veterans' administration certifies the application to the treasury department.

The treasury department makes out an order for their proper number of $50 bonds, plus a check to cover any odd amount. These are sent to the federal reserve bank in the veterans' district.

The federal reserve bank makes up a bundle for each veteran, containing as many $50 bonus "baby bonds" as the veteran is owed, plus the check to cover the odd amount.

On June 15, these packages will start to move to veterans, through the registered letter service of the post office department. Postmasters have been instructed to deliver these packages only to the veteran named on the package, even though the package may be addressed in "care of" another person, firm, hotel or company.

If the veteran has died or moved out of the post office's jurisdiction, the package will be returned to the reserve bank to await a new claim for it.

As soon as a veteran receives his bonds, he may take them to his local post office and apply for cash payment.

If a veteran chooses to hold his bonds as an investment, he may draw interest at 3 per cent a year until 1945.

State Auto Deaths Reduced 13 Per Cent

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Carroll E. Mealey, deputy commissioner of motor vehicles, said today there had been a 13 per cent reduction in automobile fatalities in the state for the first three months of 1936.

Mealey said 416 persons died in traffic accidents in that period, a decrease of 65 under the first three months last year. Injured persons in January, February and March of 1936 totaled 17,308.

"I believe the reduction is due to stricter enforcement," Mealey said. "That seems to be the answer to the whole thing. Enforcement officials seem to have gone in to do a real job."

Appellate Division Upholds N. Y. Central In Reservoir Action

The attached decision grows out of the application of the Board of Water Supply of the City of New York to condemn the right in perpetuity to carry water from the Shandaken tunnel into the Esopus Creek at Allabon, and from thence to the Ashokan Reservoir.

This use of the creek has been had since the tunnel was constructed.

In reply to the petition of the Board of Water Supply the New York Central Railroad Company filed an answer, in which they claimed that the city had not complied with the terms and provisions of the act of the Legislature under which they were authorized to acquire lands and rights for the purpose of constructing reservoirs and impounding water throughout the territory involved.

The matter came on before Judge Schebeck at Special Term, and he made an order striking out the answer of the railroad company. From his order an appeal was taken to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, Third Department, and this court has reversed the order of the Special Term on the law and the facts, with $50 costs and disbursements, and denied the motion to strike out the answer, with $10 costs and disbursements.

An interesting opinion in which all members of the court concur is written.

Supreme Court: Appellate Division, Third Department.—In the matter of the application and petition of George J. Gillespie and Henry Hesterberg, constituting the Board of Water Supply of the City of New York, to acquire real estate for and on behalf of the City of New York under Chapter 724 of the Laws of 1906 and the Acts amendatory thereof, in the towns of Shandaken, Woodstock and Olive, Ulster County, N. Y., for the purpose of providing an additional supply of pure and wholesome water for the use of the City of New York. Esopus Creek, Section No. 1.

Opinion to Reverse and Dismiss

HILL, P. J.

The New York Central Railroad Company, the present owner of the railroad properties formerly belonging to the Ulster & Delaware Railroad Company, appeals from an order which dismisses its answer to a petition filed by the Board of Water Supply of the City of New York in a proceeding wherein the city seeks to obtain by condemnation.

"The right in perpetuity to interfere with or otherwise affect the natural and usual flow of the waters of the Esopus Creek in that portion of said creek lying between the point in the town of Shandaken, Ulster County, N. Y., where the outlet of the Schoharie Water Tunnel, maintained by the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity of the City of New York, joins said Esopus Creek and the point southerly therefrom, where said Esopus Creek flows into the Ashokan Reservoir, in the town of Olive, Ulster County, N. Y., to the extent that such natural and usual flow of the waters of said creek is or may hereafter be interfered with or otherwise affected by the introduction into said creek, in the portion thereof above described, either continuously or from time to time, and in such quantities as the operating needs of such department may require, of the water of said Schoharie Water Tunnel, not exceeding the maximum flow of water which may be carried or conducted through the said tunnel: such tunnel having a height of 11 1/4 feet and a width of 10 feet, three inches, an elevation at its southern end of 1050 feet and at its northern end of 970 feet, both above mean sea level of the Atlantic Ocean; a slope southerly of 4.4 feet per mile, and a maximum capacity of about 587,000,000 gallons daily, flowing at a maximum rate of about 1063 cubic feet per second."

The proceeding was commenced and is being conducted "pursuant to Chapter 724 of the Laws of 1906 as amended." The amendments are Chapter 314 of the Laws of 1906 and Chapter 525 of the Laws of 1922. It is stated in the petition, that the right of Easement sought will be "along, over or through" fourteen parcels of land belonging to the appellant in the towns of Shandaken and Olive, Ulster County, as shown on a map filed in the County Clerk's Office of this county on October 13, 1922. The act permits the City of New York to acquire by condemnation lands or interest therein for the construction of what is generally known as the Ashokan water project, and thereunder the city has impounded in the Ashokan Reservoir the waters from the watershed drained by the Esopus Creek; and has built the Gilboa Reservoir which impounds the waters of a part of the watershed drained by the Schoharie Creek. The Gilboa Reservoir empties into the Esopus Creek at Allabon, ten miles west of the Ashokan Reservoir through a tunnel eighteen miles long. The natural flow of the Esopus Creek is thereby increased. The city has been a trespasser upon the lands of the riparian owners so far as the daily 457,000,000 gallons of water has increased the depth and width of the Esopus Creek. It seeks to acquire the land or interest therein upon which it has trespassed since the opening of the Shandaken Tunnel.

Appellant's answer asserts failure to comply with all the requirements of the act under which the state has granted the right of eminent domain to the city. It has been said concerning the act under consideration: "The right of eminent domain is an attribute of sovereignty which the state may grant or withhold at its will. When it delegates that right, it may impose upon the donee any condition that does not encroach upon or abridge any of the constitutional rights of those whose property is to be taken. It may require the donee of the right to do more than is demanded by the Constitution, but it may not permit less to be done. If the donee accepts the right and exercises it, the conditions subject to which it is granted cannot be evaded or ignored. They are part and parcel of the grant. The whole argument upon this question is aptly and tersely stated in the language of Chief Judge Cullen in matter of City of New York (130 N. Y. 350, 354), where he wrote, 'that as the right to exercise the power of eminent domain must proceed from legislative authority, the legislature may require more liberal compensation than that which would satisfy the constitutional requirement, but it cannot direct that anything less than just compensation shall be made.' (People ex rel Burhans v. City of N. Y., 138 N. Y. 439, 446)."

Upon a motion to dismiss an answer, perusal of the complaint or petition is invited. There is failure to plead compliance with the following quoted portion of Section 13 of the act.

"Where loss, damage or expense, direct or consequential, has resulted to any duly incorporated railroad corporation operating a steam railroad in any county in which land shall be acquired in pursuance of the provisions of this act * * * the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the City of New York is hereby authorized and empowered to agree with such railroad corporation * * * upon the compensation which shall be made to it for such loss * * *. In the event of no agreement being reached between said board and such railroad corporation, the commissioners of appraisal * * * (are) authorized and directed to pass upon such claim and to make awards therefor as provided in this act."

In matter of Lockport & Buffalo Railroad Co. (77 N. Y. 557) the provisions of a statute concerning the intersection of two railroads was considered. The statutory requirement was, "If the two corporations cannot agree upon the amount of compensation * * * the same shall be ascertained and determined by the commissioners of appraisal * * * of the companies alleged that no attempt had been made to reach an agreement. The opinion states (p. 563), "When this answer was put in, the petitioner sought either a withdrawal of its petition, and then made efforts to agree with the appellant, or it should have been prepared to prove that such efforts have been made." The petition was dismissed. To the same effect, matter of New York Central Railroad Co. (66 N. Y. 407); Matter of Marsh, (71 N. Y. 315, 318); City of Long Beach v. Long Beach Water Company, (209 A. D. 902); Matter of Bronx Parkway Commission, (176 A. D. 717, 720).

Section 7 of the act in part provides:

"Such petition shall contain (1) a general description of all the real estate to, in, or over which any title, interest, right or easement is sought to be acquired for the said city for the purposes of this act, each parcel being more particularly described by a reference to the number of said parcel as given on said maps, (2) and the title, interest or easement sought to be acquired to, in, or over such parcel, whether a fee or otherwise shall be stated in the petition."

This petition complies with that part of the section I have designated (1) by listing all of the appellant's property which borders upon the Esopus Creek in the stretch involved, but fails to describe adequately the interest or easement which the city seeks to acquire, as required by that part of the above section which I have designated (2). The appellant has the right in advance of the hearings on damages, to know the exact location of the land which will be taken, otherwise proof of damages will be difficult, if not impossible. Section 13 of the act requires that the report made by the commissioners at the termination of the hearing on damages "shall contain a brief description of the several parcels of real estate so acquired, taken or affected with a reference to the map or maps as showing the exact location and boundaries of each parcel." The right sought by the city to increase the depth and width of the Esopus Creek and thereby to overflow appellant's land is real estate and a permanent easement. "The case of Benedict v. State of New York (120 N. Y. 228), to which our attention has been called, holds that where a dam for canal purposes was intended to be a permanent structure for the purpose of increasing the depth of water in the river, the resulting overflow upon the plaintiff's lands is the taking of a permanent easement by the state for the use of the canal." (Matter of Van Etten v. City of New York, 226 N. Y. 483, 487).

Section 25 of the act deals specially with the taking of lands belonging to a railroad corporation. It first fixes the meaning of the words "real estate," where used in the act, as signifying, and embracing, "all uplands, lands under water, the waters of any lake, pond or stream, all water rights or privileges, and any and all easements and incorporated hereditaments and every estate, interest and right legal and equitable in land or water * * *. It shall also be construed to include all real estate (as the term is above defined) heretofore or hereafter required or used for railroad, highway or other public purposes, providing the persons or corporations owning said real estate or claiming interest therein, shall be allowed the perpetual use for such purposes of the same or of such other real estate to be acquired for the purposes of this act as will afford practicable route or location for such railroad * * * commensurate with and adapted to its needs; and provided also that such persons or corporations shall not directly or indirectly be subject to expense, loss or damage by reason of changing such route or location, but that such expense, loss or damage shall be borne by the City of New York."

It then provides that if any of the real estate of a railroad company is to be taken or affected, it shall be designated upon the maps and described in the petition and that a proposed substituted route shall be described and that hearings be had before the Supreme Court to determine whether the proposed substituted route is reasonable and proper; also that the award by the commissioners shall include an amount sufficient to defray the expenses "of making such change of route, and location and of building such railroad." The petition contains no allegations in compliance with this requirement, and its vagueness in respect of the boundaries of the land to be flowed makes it uncertain whether a re-location of any part of the line of the railroad will be necessary.

The order should be reversed on the law and facts with $50 costs and disbursements, and the motion to dismiss appellant's answer should be denied with $10 costs.
